Only Makarios Needs To Give Pact Approval

Both Sides Say Cyprus Crisis Is Nearly Over

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Greece and Turkey have reached agreement on the Cyprus crisis which brought them to the brink of war only yesterday, informed sources said today in Athens.

The sources said formal announcement was being held up until the Cypriot president, Archbishop Makarios III, gives his own formal approval.

JET FLY OVER

Turkish jets flew over Cyprus again today as a few last minute snags developed but both Greek and Turkish sources indicated the dangerous crisis was over.

Reports from Cyprus said Makarios delayed his approval because he did not like terms of the settlement calling for withdrawal of 10,000 to 12,000 Greek troops from Cyprus.

Makarios was said to fear that if the Greek troops were withdrawn the Greek Cypriots might be at the mercy of Turkish soldiers on Cyprus. Greece is allowed 950 and Turkey 650 troops in Cyprus by the treaty which gave the island independence from Britain.

VANCE IN CYPRUS

U. S. presidential envoy Cyrus R. Vance was in Cyprus for talks with Makarios and Turkish Cypriot leaders.

NATO Secretary General Manlio Brosio was in Ankara where he was expected to make a formal announcement later today.

At Nicosia, three Turkish jets circled over the Cypriot capital as Vance and Makarios met. Other Turkish planes were reported to have streaked over north and central Cyprus, two at a time at about 6,000 to 7,000 feet.

The Vance-Makarios talks appeared to be crucial. According to Greek and Cypriot reports, Makarios could all but brush away the six-day crisis by publicly accepting Turkish demands fog the Greek troop withdrawal and for the disarming of Greek-Cypriot and Turkish-Cypriot factions on the island.

There was no official announcement in Athens that Greece had accepted the Turkish terms. The Greeks had earlier been reported seeking three months to withdraw their troops; the Turks insisted six weeks were enough. The Turks also were reported to have demanded Turks, Cypriots, Greeks and British supervise the troop pullout and the disarming of factions.

Cost Of Living Rises Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose three-tenths of one per cent in October, mainly because of higher prices for new automobiles, clothing and services, the government reported today.

Food prices dropped two-tenths of one per cent, but this was less than seasonal, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

In its annual evaluation of automobile prices, the bureau said new car prices went up with introduction of the 1968 model, with retail prices averaging 2.7 per cent higher than a year ago. Manufacturers' prices averaged just 2 per cent above a year ago, after allowance for net quality improvements in 1968 models. The balance of the retail price increase was attributed to smaller dealer discounts and trade-in allowances and higher sales taxes in certain states as well as higher freight charges.

The actual increase in manufacturers' prices for cars averaged $87.54. The bureau said that $29.65 of this increase should be attributed to safety improvements and $11.20 to changes designed to reduce the output of air pollutants.

Commissioner Arthur M. Ross told a news conference that the increase in car prices is "about in line with other durable goods."

The consumer price index for October was 117.5 which means it took $11.75 to purchase goods and services that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based. The October index was up 2.6 per cent from a year ago.

Ross said he expects 1967 price increases will average out between 2.5 per cent and 3 per cent, somewhat lower than the 3.3 per cent last year.

He said he expected a 3.3 per cent increase in 1968.

White House Rules Out LBJ, McNamara Split

Word Due On World Bank Job

WASHINGTON (UPI)— The White House today rejected as "nonsense" reports of a rift between President Johnson and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara. The World Bank's directors met meanwhile to discuss the nomination of the Pentagon chief to become the bank's president.

While White House Press Secretary George Christian was parrying reporters' questions about the impending —but unofficial —departure of McNamara as defense secretary, the bank's 20 directors were meeting a few blocks away.

BANK CONFIRMS

The bank finally confirmed late yesterday that McNamara had been nominated by Johnson to become its president, but a spokesman said today only that an announcement regarding the final selection probably would be made "within a few days."

Christian, at a mid-day news conference, said once again there was no positive information he could supply at this time concerning McNamara.

JUST 'NONSENSE'

"I would classify as nonsense any inference that anyone here (White House) is making an effort to cast aspersions at Secretary McNamara or anybody else," said Christian.

Britain's Finance Director Quits In Pound Devaluation

COMBINED AP & UPI

LONDON — Chancellor of the Exchequer James Callaghan resigned today in the wake of Britain's devaluation of the pound. He switched places with Home Secretary Roy Jenkins, who succeeds him at the treasury.

The switch brings to the British treasury one of the Cabinet's leading exponents of Britain joining the Common Market. Jenkins is believed to have favored devaluation of the pound for months before it took place Nov. 18.

THREE-YEAR TENURE

Meanwhile in Paris Western financial experts met today to decide the conditions for granting Britain $1.4 billion in credit to shore up the devalued pound. President Charles de Gaulle convened his cabinet to decide how much to help.

The French cabinet would decide how much France would contribute to the $1.4 billion to be negotiated through the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Many financial experts blamed France for forcing Britain to devalue the pound.

Gaullists were fuming because the experts meeting today did not invite France to key meetings in Frankfurt last Sunday.

LABOR FAVORITE

Jenkins, 46, is the favorite of the Labor party's younger intellectuals who are not hidebound by Socialist traditions.

But Jenkins takes over at a crucial time. The next 18 months should determine whether the gamble of devaluation will succeed in bringing Britain back to solvency.

If it fails, Jenkins' political career could go down with it.

Season's First Big Snow Hits Mountains

As the first big snow of the season struck the Northern California mountains today, rain fell steadily in Marin County beginning early this morning.

In San Rafael .53 inch of rain had fallen by noon.

Rain is expected through tonight, spreading deep into Central California, forecasters said.

The U.S. Weather Bureau and the State Highway Division broadcast special warning to motorists in the Siskiyous and Sierra Nevadas. They advised possible delays due to blowing and drifting snow and poor visibility.

The weather bureau predicted the snow level, will drop to near 2,000 to 4,000 feet in the north and to 4,000 to 6,000 feet south of Yosemite by tonight.

Gale warnings were posted on the coast from Point St. George to Point Arena and small craft warnings were flown from Point Arena to Point Sur, including the Bay Area.

Rainfall readings in Marin by 8 a.m. today included: Tamalpais Valley .17, Mill Valley .13, San Anselmo .10, Sausalito .08, Hamilton Air Force Base and Terra Linda .05 and Bolinas .03, Novato, trace.

Kuchel's GOP Stock Is Up

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Sen. Thomas Kuchel has vastly strengthened his chances in recent months of beating Max Rafferty in next year's primary, the Mervin Field California Poll reported today.

Field said Kuchel has almost doubled his margin of preference over Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction and a conservative who has indicated he probably will run for Kuchel's Senate seat, during the past 10 months.

The most recent poll of Republicans showed 50 per cent favoring Kuchel's renomination, 29 per cent backing Rafferty and 21 per cent backing neither.

In the Democratic race, Field said, three men seem to divide most of the early preference vote—Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty, Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh and former Controller Alan Cranston.

W. W. Perry Plans To Seek Storer's Post

William W. Perry of Point Reyse Station announced today he will run against Supervisor Thomas T. Storer in the supervisorial election next June.

Perry, 37, said he decided to run a year ago because he was "very concerned about government affairs, and something has got to be done to help the people out." He said he has never served on a public body.

Perry is a maintenance man with the City Sewer Service of Point Reyes Station. He is a bachelor.

Perry moved from his native Modesto to West Marin 15 years ago, and has lived in Point Reyes Station for almost three years.

Storer, also of Point Reyes Station, already has announced he will run for a second term.

Since Storer's election, redistricting shifted the majority of the fourth supervisorial district from West Marin to San Rafael, Corte Madera and Larkspur.

Louis H. Barr, San Rafael city councilman for the past 10 years, has said he is "seriously considering" running for Storer's post, too.

THIS THIEF STEALS BUT HAS A HEART

Rose Marie Soto, 22, of 31 Locke Lane, Mill Valley, was walking through the Marin City-Sausalito underpass Monday afternoon when a skinny young man grabbed her purse and ran, they said.

She chased him, screaming that her passport and other important papers were in the purse. He whirled, pulled out a smaller money purse and threw the larger purse to the ground, deputies said.

Miss Soto lost $10 and some of her identification cards.

She said the thief was wearing orange corduroy pants, black boots, a black turtle neck sweater and a black jacket.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bert Lahr, whose career as a comic star spans nearly 60 years, was reported seriously ill today at Columbia -Presbyterian Medical Center.

Cong Human Waves Attack Rips Town

SAIGON (UPI) — American reinforcements today rushed into the district town of Bo Duc near the Cambodian border where the Viet Cong, attacking in human waves, smashed into the town of 10,000 and overran the adjacent Bu Dop Green Beret camp.

U.S. bombers and troops turned back the attack, recaptured the military base and sent the Viet Cong retreating towards Cambodia. But military spokesman said the attack could signal the start of another major Red offensive.

Military headquarters in Saigon said a ballation (800 or more men) of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division had been sent into the Bo Duc area in belief the Communists were preparing for "another battle of Loc Ninh."

The battle of Loc Ninh began Oct. 31 in a Viet Cong attempt to mar South Vietnam's presidential inauguration. When it ended the Communist had lost 860 dead and the Americans 42 dead and 209 wounded. The same Viet Cong units were involved in the Bo Duc fight only 20 miles from Loc Ninh.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Dropping Out

LAGUNA BEACH (AP) — LSD advocate Dr. Timothy Leary, who once advised young people to "tune in, turn on and drop out," says he is "dropping out of public life."

Leary, living in Laguna Beach with his wife of two weeks, condemned the use of drugs for "selfish kicks." He said he is giving up his work with the "League for Spiritual Discovery," a group he founded.

Leary

"LSD, when used properly, is a sacrament aimed to produce love of God and man," Leary told the Laguna News-Post. "If it is used for selfish kicks it is harmful."

Leary said he and the former Rosemary Woodruff, 33, a former actress and model who worked as his administrative assistant, were married Nov. 11.

Roy Becraft and his bride, Hilda

Happy Ending To A War Tragedy

HONOLULU (AP) — Roy Becraft and the former Hilda Tomkins of Manila were engaged to be married when World War II began.

Today, 26 years later, they are spending a Hawaiian honeymoon in Honolulu. They were married Saturday in Riverside, Calif.

The couple's engagement was "broken" by the fall of the Philippines.

During the war they became separated and until last year thought each other was dead.

They were reunited after Miss Tomkins' niece met a mutual friend of the couple at a party in California last year.

When they first became engaged Becraft was 20 — and an infantryman. She was 19, the daughter of a British executive.

Becraft became a prisoner of war when Corregidor fell in 1942. Both have been married and divorced.

Catholic Priest Sets Wedding

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Rev. James Kavanaugh, a Roman Catholic priest, says he will be married Dec. 16 to a nurse.

Father Kavanaugh, 39, author of the best-selling "A Modern Priest Looks at His Outdated Church," told newsmen yesterday his wedding to Patricia Jean Walden, 35, will take place whether or not the Catholic Church grants request for permission.

The priest currently works for the Human Relations Institute in La Jolla, a San Diego suburb. He said the marriage will take place in the home of his brother, Dr. Philip Kavanaugh of La Jolla.

Miss Walden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Walden, of St. Petersburg, Fla. She is an Episcopalian.

Father Kavanaugh says he has in effect resigned as a priest but he still considers himself a Catholic.

INTERVIEW WITH TWO GENERALS

Ike, Bradley On Vietnam War

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says the United States can win the Vietnam war and urges greater leeway for U.S. troops in pursuing enemy forces across South Vietnam's national frontiers.

He advocated limited forays into the demilitarized zone to spike enemy artillery and "hot pursuit" of enemy ground forces, even when they seek sanctuary in neutral Cambodia or Laos.

Eisenhower said the pursuit principle should also apply to aircraft fleeing over Red China. He discounted the possibility of major intervention in Vietnam by either the Soviet Union or Red China.

The former Republican presiding World War II spoke last night in a taped interview on the CBS television network along with Omar N. Bradley, the nation's only other living five-star general.

Eisenhower said Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, apparently "has about as many troops as he would like, or as he's asked for."

But he added, "Personally, I would like to see him have another 100,000 to just clean this thing up more quickly."

At another point he said "the first principle of war is to win quickly . . . I think that if you're going to appeal to force, and disregard all international means of getting this thing settled, then get all the force you can as quickly as you can."

Asked if he thought it was possible to win the war militarily, Eisenhower noted there were always defeatists "People say, 'Oh, you can't win. What are we going to do? Better stop right here!' Well, that's silly. And I say, of course they can do it."

In the past Eisenhower has repeatedly declined to recommend any specific strategy in the war.

At another point, however, Eisenhower and Bradley were asked if there was something else the nation could be doing now in Vietnam. Their replies, according to a transcript, included the following:

EISENHOWER: This respecting of boundary lines on a map. I think you can overdo it. Now we don't want to invade North Vietnam and destroy it, but they're right down in the DMZ and right north of it, and now it seems to me, if we wanted, to put on an operation that would get this menace eliminated, I think this wouldn't be invading —then this would be removing a thorn in our sides. That's the way I look at—war—I think you do too.

BRADLEY: In other words, you're suggesting, one operation might be to make an end run around—the DMZ—and knock their artillery out . . .

BRADLEY:—from the hills. In other words they didn't respect the DMZ that was put in there and everybody was supposed to stay out of there. They disregarded that agreement and they came on through and built up in it.

EISENHOWER: No . . . But what I'm saying is, that sort of sacrosanct idea of a line on the ground that no one can see, but it's on your maps, and you must respect it in—to the ultimate . . . This, I just don't agree with . . . and this is not an invasion, this is just removing an annoyance, and a menace. Now, I don't care where this happens. As far as I'm concerned, I would be for what we call "hot pursuit," even in the air—if—

BRADLEY: Or on the ground?

EISENHOWER: Hm? Or on the ground, that's right. And if you're chasing some people and they just step over into Cambodia or Laos, I wouldn't—it wouldn't bother me. I'd go at 'em as long as they'd come in there in the first place. And in this same way, the air. If an airplane attacked me, and we wanted to chase him, I'd go in wherever his base was. As far as I'm concerned.

Q.—Including China?

EISENHOWER: Yes, wherever his base comes.

Senators Press Rusk Invitation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may be asked to mediate a continuing dispute between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee regarding information on the Vietnam war.

Some members of the panel are growing increasingly impatient over Rusk's rejection of invitations to appear before it and publicly answer questions on the administration's Vietnam policies.

TO PRESIDENT

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., says he wants to take the controversy directly to the President for a decision.

His plan calls for having the committee authorize Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to register a formal protest with Johnson over Rusk's refusal to appear at a public session.

Such a motion, prepared for introduction at a committee meeting today, could not be voted before tomorrow.

A Rusk agreement to appear publicly could head off a protest to the White House, Gore said.

He commented in an interview after a Senate speech in which he complained of Rusk's continuing refusal to agree to discuss Vietnam before the committee with the public and press on hand.

The secretary has said repeatedly a more candid and fruitful exchange of views can be had in private session.

POSES QUESTIONS

But Gore posed a series of questions he said Rusk should be asked to answer in public. They covered goals and national security aspects of the Vietnam military effort.

"How can either the President or the Senate discharge their respective responsibilities to the American people without incisive public examination of these policies and questions?" Gore asked the Senate.

Rusk last appeared before the committee in public on Vietnam in February 1966.

Lot Split Approved Minus A Road Clause

The San Rafael Planning Commission last night approved a three lot split for Jerome Kushings at the end of Inverness Drive — but not before a minor dispute over whether the owner should be forced to build half a road.

Bryan R. McCarthy, attorney for Kushings, objected strongly to a condition on the approval requesting the subdivider to build one half of a 100-foot extension of Inverness Drive.

ROAD ISSUE

"It strikes me this is presented as the price we have to pay for the subdivision," said McCarthy. "My client will never use this piece of road and it is unlikely future development will occur beyond the end of the drive for another five to ten years."

McCarthy said Kushings did not own the land for the road and, in any case, the city did not yet own the right of way.

It was this lack of right-of-way which decided commissioners to drop the road-building condition from the approval.

FUTURE PROBLEM

Charles J. Linthicum, acting planner, warned the commission it may be faced in future with a problem in providing roads and improvements unless it required them when subdivisions were created.

San Rafael Planning Commission also:

FENCE — Approved a six-foot fence use permit at home of Armand and Corrine Greenfield, 71 Oakdale Avenue.

BOATS — Approved a use permit requested by Fred Shumaker for a boatworks at 377 Francisco Boulevard on condition a bulkhead is removed.

SHORTENED — Gave Edwin S. N. Wong of 211 Riviera Drive a use permit for a swimming pool fence he had reduced in height from an original seven feet six inches.

Gnoss, Maloney To Address Group

Supervisor William A. Gnoss and County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney will address the first general meeting of the Gnoss Estates Association at 8 p.m., Monday at the library of Olive School, according to Mrs. Ralph Rungo Jr., secretary.

Copies of the proposed by-laws for the organization will be given out at the meeting, and in the neighborhood prior to the meeting, Mrs. Rungo said.

Medical Clinic Gets Variance

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night approved a variance for Dr. S. U. Miller and others at Bon Air Medical Clinic, 1365 South Eliseo Drive, to replace obscure glass windows with clear glass.

The clinic is next to an area zoned residential but has no adjacent houses.

The commission also granted Mrs. R. J. Merret of Dollars n' Sense, 110 Magnolia Avenue, a variance to change a storage area to a retail sales are without providing required parking. The commission required, however, that she must provide curb, gutter and sidewalks.

Vote Re-Register Set In Mill Valley

Mill Valley Republican precinct workers will re-register voters Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the bus depot in Lytton Square.

County election officials have urged all voters to re-register voluntarily so their records will be on data processing cards. The cards are designed to speed handling of records and to reduce space necessary to store them.

Go-Slow Approach In Medi-Cal Problem

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Democrats and a splinter group of Republicans rallied in the Assembly today behind a go-slow approach to Medi-Cal's financial problems.

It's an approach in sharp dispute with Gov. Ronald Reagan's views. He wants clear legislative authority to cut some of the free services provided in the program of health care for the poor.

The Assembly coalition was prepared to push through a resolution sponsored by Republican Assemblyman John G. Veneman of Modesto to keep Medi-Cal benefits at the present level until next Feb. 29.

Meanwhile, legislators would try to determine just who has caused Medi-Cal expenses to zoom and by how much. Corrective legislation then would be considered in the regular 1968 session.

The Assembly's Republican leader, Robert T. Monagan of Tracy, said the legislature should give a fair hearing to Reagan's proposal.

But Monagan admitted "I'm not optimistic" about its chance of passage.

Democrats have made it clear they do not intend to give Reagan "a free hand" to cut Medi-Cal services to offset a deficit which the Reagan administration contends threatens the whole Medi-Cal program.

Veneman said his resolution would not keep the governor from making cuts and "he can fly in the face of it if he wants to."

If the legislature approves the moratorium and kills the governor's bills, Reagan said yesterday, "we would have to find whatever we could do responsibly to make this program work."

That could mean cutting 160,000 medically indigent from the 1.3-million member health care plan, the governor has said. Reagan said he would be the moratorium and kills the governor's bills, Reagan said Tuesday, "we would have to find whatever we could do responsibly to make this program expert who several times has opposed Reagan on key issues.

LBJ Gives Formula For Cutting Budget

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Johnson Administration presented Congress today a formula for cutting federal spending by $4 billion in a last-ditch effort to get a tax increase this year.

In a somber presentation to the House Ways & Means Committee, Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler said President Johnson was willing to cut federal payrolls by 2 per cent and to trim controllable federal spending programs by 10 per cent.

This represented a significant concession by the Administration in an effort to revive President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income surtax. But there was no evidence whatever that the effort would succeed in getting the bill out of Rep. Wilbur D. Mills' deep freeze.

Mills, who as chairman of the Ways & Means Committee has virtual life and death control over revenue legislation, said in advance of the appearance today of Fowler and other top Administration fiscal leaders that it was "impossible" to pass a tax bill this session.

Fowler said the Administration has concluded that the Vietnam war cost will not rise as sharply as anticipated in August —that the fiscal 1968 cost probably would be $2 billion less than officials predicted three months ago.

As a result of this and scaling down of other spending estimates —as distinguished from actual spending cuts —Fowler revised the August forecast of a $29 billion budget deficit to $25 billion. And he said this could be trimmed to around $14 billion by the combination of a $7.4 billion tax increase and the spending cuts the Administration proposes.

Budget Director Charles Schultze told the tax writers that Johnson's plan to reduce federal spending programs by 10 per cent included nonessential Defense Department appropriations not connected directly with the Vietnam war.

Revised Bill On Districts In Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A revised congressional reapportionment bill went before assemblymen today, after a compromise agreement approved earlier by Senate-Assembly conference was shelved by legislative rules.

The latest bill doesn't differ significantly from the redistricting bill that has been debated since Nov. 6 when the court-directed reapportionment special session opened.

However, it does make minor changes in the plan once produced by a Senate - Assembly conference committee. While the Senate had approved the earlier conference committee bill, the Assembly had held it up partly because Republicans contended the population figures used to redraw the district boundaries were wrong in 12 cases.

The revised bill does not change the proposal to split Marin County into two districts, lumping central and southern Marin residents in a San Francisco district. The county would be split on an East-West line from a point north of Gallinas Creek to West Marin.

Democrats and Republicans put their computers together and finally agreed yesterday on final figures. These forced changes in 10 districts — and that junked the previous bill because legislative rules forbid any changes in a conference agreement.

However, Chairman Jack R. Fenton, D-Montebello, chairman of the Assembly Elections and Reapportionment Committee, introduced a new bill Tuesday. His committee then met and adopted the bill with the agreed upon changes, and it was sent to the floor on a voice vote.

Fenton noted that one change puts a couple of houses back into the same congressional district; the previous plan in effect chopped them in half, divided between districts.

WAR

sources said U.S. and South Vietnamese killed 98 of the guerrillas attacking in waves in the border area 90 miles north of Saigon. The Americans reported no losses and the South Vietnamese said they lost 15 killed and 19 wounded.

U.S. authorities said the attack might have been in revenge for the Loc Ninh battle where the Viet Cong 272nd Regiment was so badly mauled it had to withdraw into Cambodia to rebuild and re-equip.

Apparently hoping to do what they failed to do at Loc Ninh—seize the post and wipe out its defenders, the guerrillas first slammed mortar shells into the border city, terrorizing its residents. In three columns the Communists then stormed the Bu Dop U.S. military advisers compound, a local military headquarters.

The guerrillas overran one of the base's two heavily fortified compounds which also house a local South Vietnamese military headquarters. Led by three U.S. advisers, the Allied defenders retreated to the second compound and managed to hold off the human wave assaults.

"On the matter of the World Bank," he said, "the situation as far as the White House is concerned is about the same as it has been. There has been no official action, no resignation, no appointment involving Secretary McNamara.

There were several published reports today that McNamara was not leaving entirely of his own accord —or at least not at a time of his precise choosing. Congressional sources tended to partly support some of these suggestions.

The sources said McNamara was caught by surprise on the timing of Johnson's nomination of him to head the world bank.

The question of whether McNamara was going voluntarily or being "transferred" was raised on the Senate floor Tuesday by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

Informed congressional sources said they understood that although the possibility of McNamara's nomination for the World Bank had been under discussion between Johnson and the secretary, McNamara was not informed that the President had submitted it until after it was done.

The timing question was raised raised by reporters with Christian. He said simply that he felt certain the facts of the matter would come out ultimately.

A combination of dust and dirt was poured on a clean white rug. Half the area had been treated with Duo-Dellay Process and half untreated.

This dirt was ground in just as foot traffic grinds similar dirt into your carpets.

CAUTION: Do not be misled by claims of new methods which do not meet manufacturers' specifications. Some unapproved processes may cause rapid resoiling.

The area was vacuumed. Look how the soil was easily vacuumed off the area treated by the Duo-Dellay Process. Yet this same soil penetrated and stayed imbedded in the untreated side.

Duo-Dellay is a harmless invisable process developed by Duo-Dellay Prod. Co. with duPont Chemicals that shields all types of carpets or upholstery against dirt. It keeps dirt from becoming imbedded in the fibers. This dirt lays on the surface and can be vacuumed away. This process will last up to a year depending on the use your rug receives. York Research Corp. tested rugs treated with duo-Dellay and reported an average increase in the life of the rugs of 40%!

High-Speed Chase Nets Theft Suspects

Four persons were arrested for suspicion of criminal conspiracy and burglary early today after a high-speed chase by a Marinwood woman and a Marin County deputy sheriff.

The chase began when Lee Bishaw arrived at her home at 838 Greenberry Lane, Marinwood, at 2:20 a.m. and saw a car parked in front of her house.

She drove past, then turned and gave chase when the car drove away.

Deputy Joseph Fitzgerald saw the two cars enter Highway 101 from Lucas Valley Road and gave chase because of their high speed.

When he pulled alongside Miss Bishaw's car, she waved and pointed to the other auto. Fitzgerald got the message.

He stopped the auto in the northbound lanes on St. Vincent's Hill. Miss Bishaw said a portable hair dryer on the back floor of the car was from her home.

Arrested were Michael Andrew Ward, 20, of Oakland; Wilford Arnett Wadley, 19, of Berkeley; Rita Johnson, 21, of Oakland; and Ann Jay Scott, 24, of San Francisco.

Ward told Fitzgerald he fell asleep as they were driving in the East Bay and did not awaken until the chase. Wadley said he, too, slept most of the night and did not know what occurred.

Miss Scott and Miss Johnson declined to talk, Fitzgerald said.

Miss Binshaw said Miss Scott had been at her home a few nights before as a guest.

Jury Selection In Welfare Trial

Jury selection for the grand theft trial of Dr. Henry Chaker, accused of over-charging county welfare patients, began in Marin Superior Court today.

The trial, which prosecutor Ernest Zunino predecited will run seven to nine days, will be held before Judge Joseph G. Wilson.

Attorney for Chaker is George T. Davis.

Chaker, a former Novato physician who now lives in Shell Beach, San Luis Obispo County, has a $5 million suit pending against what he says is a "personal society" of Marin doctors and hospitals.

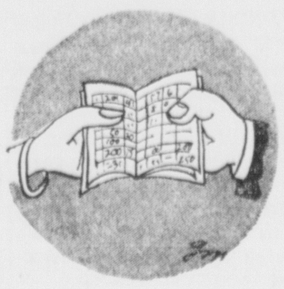
LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

The Case Of Joint Account



Hilda, a widow, had been quite ill for some years. From time to time she lived with various realtives, mostly her two brothers and a sister. She had just moved in with her brother, John, for about a month when she took a turn for the worse. Hilda had a large savings account which she had deposited in the name of John and Hilda, as "joint tenants."

John drew out $3,000 mostly for Hilda's bills. A week later Hilda died without a will. Later, since John's name was on the joint savings account, he claimed all the money as the sole survivor of the joint account.

The other brother and sister claimed a share in the savings as Hilda's heirs. They said that John had taken unfair advantage of Hilda since she was living at his home when she put her savings in the joint account.

The court ruled for John. It said that there was no evidence of John's unfair dealing. Hilda had opened the account on her own. The law presumes that Hilda meant the ownership of the account to go to her survivor, John. Hilda's other brother and sister produced no evidence that she had any other intention. John got the money.

When title to real or personal property is held in joint tenancy, it ordinarily passes at once to the survivor or survivors when one joint tenant dies. Now and then there is evidence that no joint tenancy was really meant, but the property had been put in joint tenancy for convenience. The court must have evidence that in spite of the joint tenancy, the depositor wanted to dispose of the property by will or in some other way besides the survival of the other joint tenant. But unless this can be proved, the property passes to the surviving joint tenant.

If Hilda had left a will which gave the property to her relatives, this might have been used as evidence of her real personal wishes. Even so, it might not bind John, if he could show nevertheless that she intended him to take the property when she died.

When your lawyer plans your estate, he will review your property ownership. He may ask you terminate some of your joint tenancies so you will control how that property will pass when you die. The joint tenancy is easily ended.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Busterud, Mrs. Sherry Resign From GOP Group

The Marin County Republican Central Committee last night accepted the resignations of two veteran members and of its executive secretary.

Committee members John A. Busterud of San Rafael and Mrs. H. Lee Sherry of Fairfax, who both served on the committee for seven years, resigned because of the press of other business.

The executive secretary, Mrs. Howard C. Lee of San Rafael, said she resigned to help her husband in his business. A volunteer office worker for the party the past seven years, she was named executive secretary when the paid, part-time position was created in September. She remains on the central committee.

Elections to replace Busterud and Mrs. Sherry will be held at the next meeting, Dec. 19 at 8 p.m. in the county courthouse, San Rafael.

A. J. Bianchi, Point Reyes Station dairy rancher, was elected to the committee to replace Colin Claxon, who resigned two months ago when he moved out of the fourth supervisorial district.

Suntan Pills Are Dangerous

CHICAGO (SS) — If you are going south this winter, be careful of trying to get a quick tan with the aid of pills.

A severely blistered skin can result from inadequate instructions to persons taking "suntan pills" that contain potent light sensitizers called psoralens, or furocoumadins. One trade name is Trisoralen.

Early publicity calling the psoralens "suntan pills" led many physicians to think they were equivalent to suntan lotions. Dr. S. William Becker Jr. of the University of Illinois College of Medicine in Chicago says. Dosage and exposure to sunlight must be carefully adjusted to the individual person in every locality because skin and light differ.

Ike Donates Farm For Historical Site

WASHINGTON (AP) —Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and his wife have donated their farm and house at Gettysburg, Pa., to the United States as a national historic site, the White House announced today.

The Eisenhowers will continue to occupy their home and use the farm facilities during Gen. Eisenhower's lifetime, but arrangements will be made for authorizing future development of visitors' facilities there for tourists.

SAFETY SEDAN — This $385,000 safety sedan model has among its features a periscope over the front seat and a front bumper that extends out at speeds over 37 miles per hour. (AP Wirephoto)

New Safety Sedan, Minicar Revealed

NEW YORK (AP) — Motor Vehicle Commissioner Vincent L. Tofany has displayed a state-financed scale model of a "safety sedan" that he says would withstand a front or rear end impact at 50 miles an hour.

The model, developed at a cost of $385,000, was shown at a news conference yesterday.

SAFETY FEATURES

Among the score of safety features are:

A periscope that juts up from the roof, with an eye mirror to the left of the steering wheel, giving the driver a panoramic view to the rear and sides without having to take his eyes off the road for long. The device has a wide-angle viewing lens of 160 degrees.

A hydraulic energy-absorbing bumper that extends 12 inches and operates automatically as soon as the car goes over 37 miles an hour.

FOUR-WHEEL DRIVE

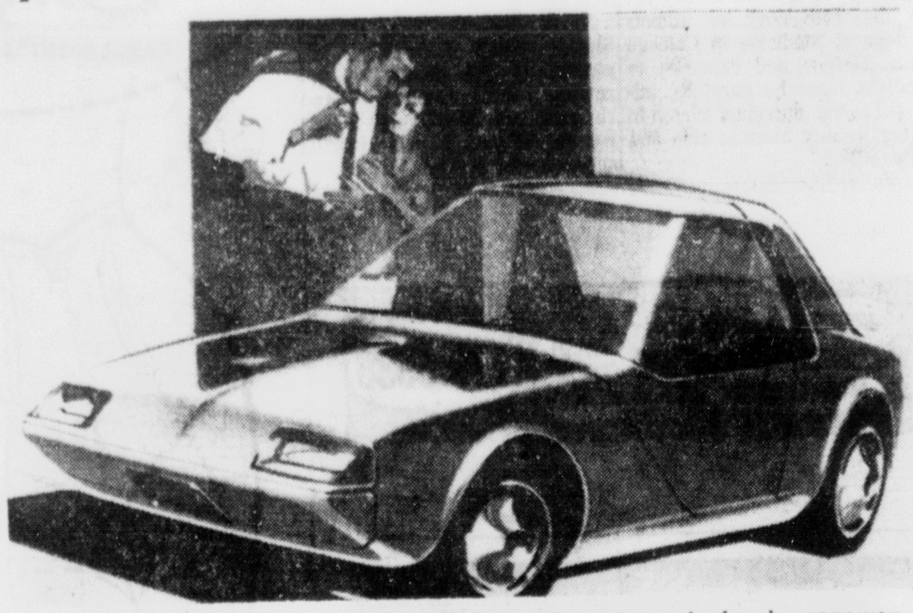
The Fairchild Hiller Corp., an aerospace firm, developed the design under a $385,000 contract with the state.

In Washington Federal officials say the University of Pennsylvania and General Motors Corp. have teamed to develop a gasoline-electric minicar that would produce only about one-tenth the air pollution of conventional cars.

HALF THE LENGTH

Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the Housing and Urban Development Department told a news conference yesterday the car would be about half the length of conventional U.S. models, seat three adults, have a top speed of 60 miles per hour and accelerate like a Volkswagen sedan.

Weaver said the car could be mass-produced for use within five years. It probably would sell for about $1,600, he added.



PROPOSED MINICAR — Designed as an anti-air pollution vehicle, this electric motor and a low horsepower minicar would have a battery driven gasoline engine. (AP Wirephoto)

Handshakes End Britain's Colonial Rule In Aden

LONDON (AP) — Britain signed an agreement in Geneva today ending 128 years of colonial rule in Aden, but there'll be no British royal presence and no warm handshakes when the Union Jack comes down for the last time in Aden at midnight.

Qahtan Al Ashaabi, leader of the National Liberation Front (NLF) which is taking over the 112,000 square miles of scorching sand in South Arabia, and a British delegation headed by Lord Shackleton came to terms after a gruelling 18-hour session that lasted all night.

A joint communique announced that the major issue of British financial aid to the new Republic of South Yemen will be decided in future talks. Britain meanwhile agreed to continue help at the present rate of 60 million pounds—now worth $144 million—a year.

The British want to lower that figure, which was set when Egyptian troops in neighboring Yemen were considered a threat. The Egyptians have left Yemen, but Al Shaabi said 60 million pounds a year is the least Britain can do after "128 years of colonial exploitation."

Talks Will Resume In Symphony Fuss

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Negotiations were resumed today in efforts to get the stalled San Francisco Symphony season under way again.

A stalemate between Musicians Union Local 6 and the symphony association has forced cancellation of three performances this week.

Jane's Says Mutual Survival Pact Vital

LONDON (UPI) — The United States and the Soviet Union should form a "mutual survival pact" against the coming nuclear power of Communist China and France, according to the authoritative British encyclopedia that evaluates every nation's air and rocket power.

Jane's "All the World's Aircraft," the 58-year-old standard strategic reference of most governments, also said the death of a cosmonaut last April probably prevented the Soviet Union from rocketing a man around the moon by now.

In the 1967-1968 volume published yesterday, Jane's said a war between the United States and the Soviet Union would be "mutually suicidal." Each nation would be destroyed by the other's awesome air and missile weaponry, it said.

"Time is on nobody's side," Jane's said in reference to a time element that one time or another favored one nation or the other. The review said Moscow and Washington now have reached a nuclear stalemate where war is "unthinkable."

"Unfortunately, there are no longer only two actual or potential superpowers," Jane's said. "China will almost certainly have nuclear-tipped, medium-range ballistic missiles within one year, an initial intercontinental ballistic missile capability in the early 1970s and a significant force by the mid 70s."

Jane's said China's threat had spurred Washington and Moscow to begin building antimissile systems. France's nuclear potential also was reviewed by the volume in relation to increasing nervousness about proliferation.

Jane's detailed the "formidable array of silo-based and submarine-based strategic missile, mobile tactical missiles, all with nuclear warheads" that France "will have at its disposal by the 1970s."

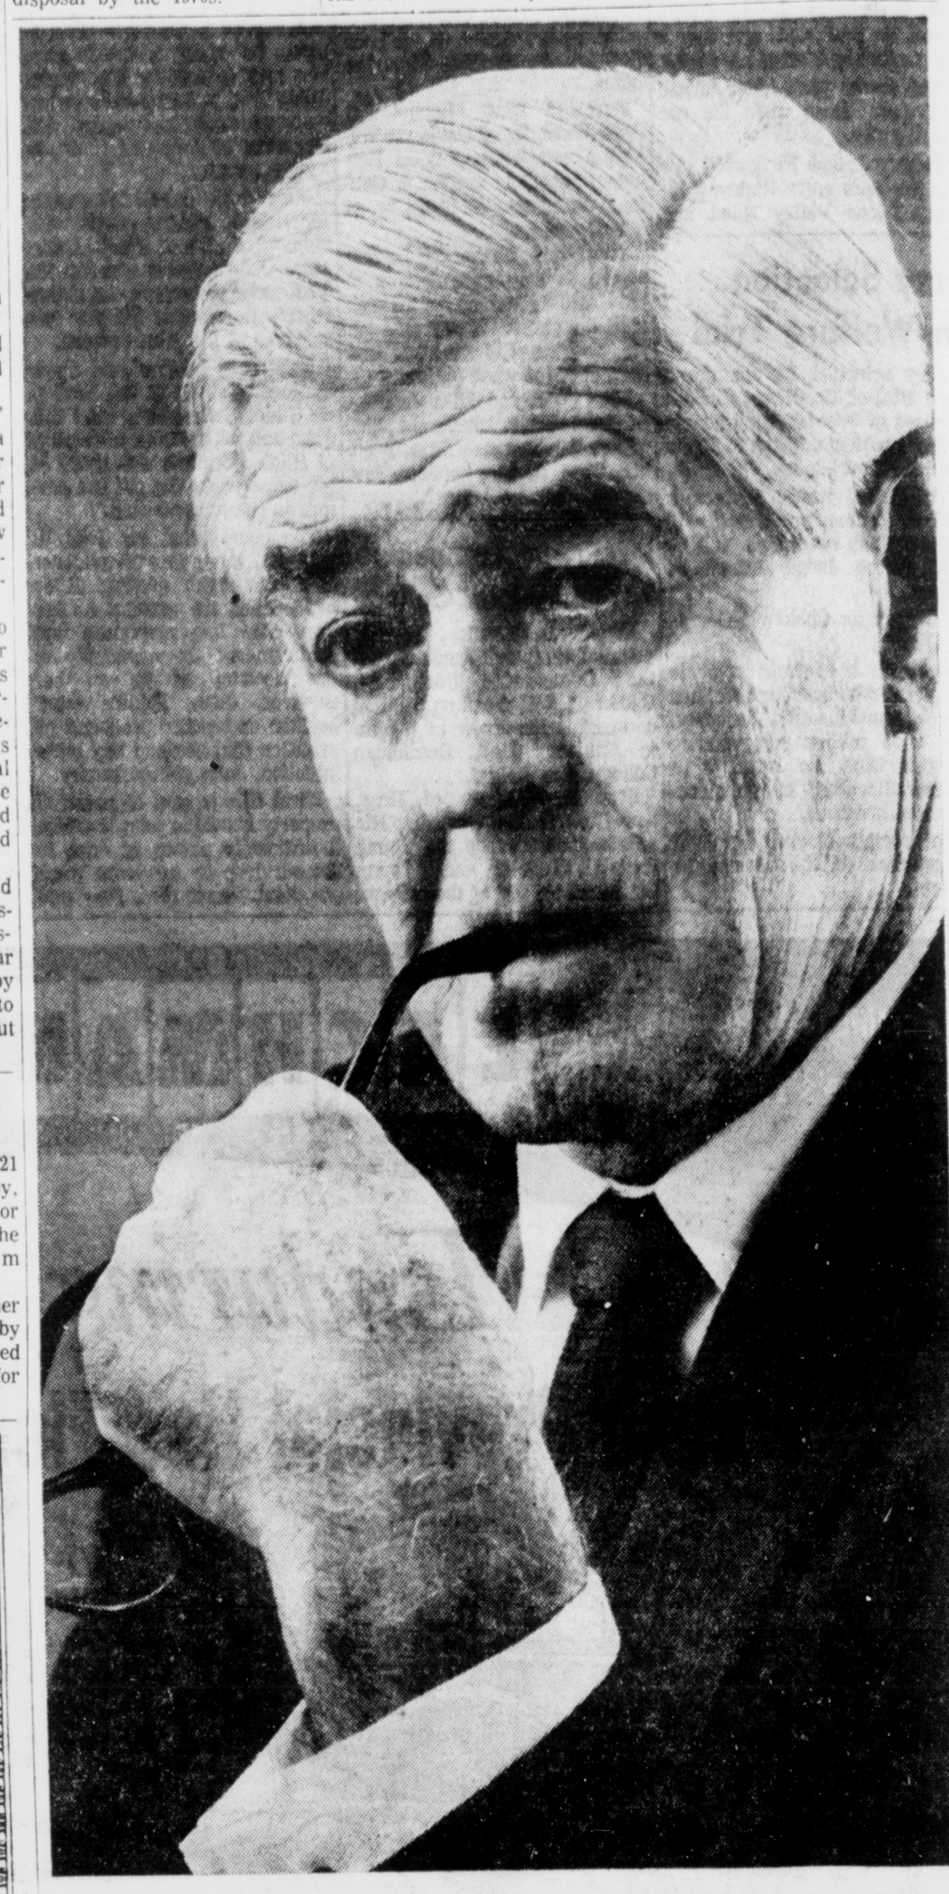
Banker Predicts Economy Upsurge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A California banking expert predicts the United States economy will forge ahead in the next few months despite uncertainties resulting from the devaluation of the British pound.

Dr. Leslie C. Peacock, senior vice president of Crocker-Citizens National Bank, speaking to the San Francisco chapter of the National Association of Accountants last night, called for reduction in the federal budget deficit in fiscal 1968 and an increase in income tax rates.

He said the British devaluation will undoubtedly put the U.S. balance-of-payments position under increasing strain.

Strong measures will be needed to protect price stability and uphold international confidence, he said.



Guilty Plea Made To Exposure Charge

Albert R. Kingman, 49, of 221 Princeton Avenue, Mill Valley, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court yesterday to a charge he exposed himself near Elm Avenue in Larkspur July 24.

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner ordered Kingman examined by two paychiatrists and continued the case to Dec. 20 at 9 a.m. for sentencing.

Out of every 10 babies born in the United States, nine are born in hospitals.

Burglars Take Phone From Cleaning Firm

The Marin County Sheriff's office yesterday reported six burglaries in the unincorporated area of the county.

Someone kicked in the door of Village Cleaners and Coin Laundry at 716 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia, Saturday night or Sunday and stole a pay telephone off the wall, deputies said.

On Sunday, a deputy heard a burglar alarm and found thieves had pried the door of the bar and restaurant at Indian Valley Golf Club. He reported the burglars took a case of beer and four bottles of liquor.

Iris E. Webb of Napa told sheriff's officers Saturday that someone broke into her trailer on Brazil Ranch Road at Dillon's Beach Friday or Saturday.

She found a plastic bag containing what appeared to be marijuana, plus broken glass, dirty dishes and garbage scattered throughout the trailer, deputies said.

Rhoda Boyd of Upper Road, Ross, complained to deputies Saturday that sometime between Nov. 5 and Saturday, a thief entered through an unlocked door of her summer home on Upper County Road in Bolinas and stole a $75 phonograph.

Duncan L. Howard of San Francisco said Saturday that someone took two western saddles, a bridle and a branding iron from the tack room at the Howard Ranch in Nicasio sometime in the last six weeks.

A similar complaint came from Harry C. Ribolini of Carson Road, Woodacre, the day before. He said that, in the last six weeks, someone took a $200 western saddle and a hackamore from the tack room near his house.

Foundation Asks $12,782 For Teen-Age Girls Home

A private agency operating a home for teen-age girls yesterday asked the Marin County Board of Supervisors to grant it $12,782 to furnish and staff an 18-bed home in Larkspur.

The agency, Marin Foundation, Friends of Arequipa, also asked supervisors to guarantee payment for the new home's full capacity for one year, the cost estimated by the agency at $575 for each child a month, or a total of $23,132 with the grant.

The foundation plans to use an apartment house now under construction at 476 Cane Street to supplement its six-bed home in San Rafael. The new home, already approved by the Larkspur Planning Commission, is to open in March.

Supervisors deferred action on the request to next Tuesday, asking their staff to study the prospects of filling the new home with referrals from other counties if local needs cannot fill it.

"You're biting off much more than you can chew," cautioned Supervisor Peter H. Behr. If the new home is not filled so that it can operate without a loss, he predicted, "you'll return to us for more money."

A monthly charge of $575, said County Administrator Alan Bruce, "is competitive enough to attract other counties." The "only legal peg" for the county grant, he said, would be to limit the home to court wards and children from families receiving aid for dependent children.

Marin Building Permits Jump During October

Marin County's construction industry continued an upward swing last month as more than a 100 per cent increase in building construction was noted over October of last year.

The total valuation for building permits issued in the county in October was $4,585,000 as compared to $2,196,000 for October, 1966. This represented about the level reached for September 1967 which was $4,520,000, according to U. S. Department of Commerce.

The unincorporated area of the county accounted for $1,721,000 of the total for October, and Larkspur was the city in the county with the largest building permit activity at $804,000. San Rafael was next with $594,000 and Novato, third, at $575,000.

Department of Commerce officials said that in the nine-county Bay Area value of permits was down 22 per cent from last month but that most of the decline took place in San Francisco County.

Board Of Design Approves New Pets Hospital

The Corte Madera Board of Design review Monday night approved the design of a new pet hospital at 5796 Paradise Drive.

The board stipulated, however, that applicant William McDevitt Co. of San Rafael must remove a portion of the front of the existing hospital there because its extension is a traffic visual hazard.

The board took no action pending further information on application of Gulf Oil Co. of San Leandro for approval of a design for a new service station near Highway 101 and Tamalpais Drive.

It also found that Shell Oil Co. of Millbrae, seeking design approval for a canopy over gas pump islands of a service station at 5649 Paradise Drive, must first obtain a variance from the board of adjustments because it is across the street from a residential area.

Thieves May Have Burned Fingers

Thieves who broke into a Marin County school Sunday may be suffering from burned fingers, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

Chemicals were found scattered around the science room of the Three R School in San Rafael Meadows after the school was found entered.

Outside the building, deputies found a small jar of yellow phosphorous lying in a doorway. Officers said the chemical would burn severely on contact with skin.

Mental Health Report Is Due

Report on the progress being made by the traveling group of mental health experts who will treat children in the Novato area will be made today at 8 p.m. to the Mental Health Advisory Board in the Coral Room of Marin General Hospital.

Dr. Heber Hudson will describe activities of the group which is now being set up.

Also on the agenda is discussion of the mental health planning questionnaire which will be completed by board members to help ascertain mental health needs in the community.

PG&E Official's Ex-Wife Dead

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — In 1961, Russian premier Nikita Khrushchev announced the marriage of Pacific Gas & Electric Co. executive Robert Gros to his fourth wife, Marilyn Lang. The couple was visiting him at the time.

Miss Lang divorced Gros early this year, charging extreme mental cruelty. Yesterday, she was found dead in her apartment, an apparent suicide.

Gros, 51, was traveling in the East when he was notified of Miss Lang's death.

Sounding Board Topic: Democrats

The future of the Democratic party will be discussed at 9 a.m. tomorrow on radio KTIM's "Sounding Board" by four members of the party's central committee in Marin.

Speakers will be Albert E. Gately, committee chairman; Mrs. Elaine Guthrie, treasurer; S. Robert Politzer, vice president and director of the California Democratic Council of the First Congressional District, and Robert Carrow.

Rhte program will be repeated on tape at 9 p.m. tomorrow over KTIM-FM.

Bolinas Utility District Adopts New Sewer Plan

Bolinas Community Public Utility District board Monday night adopted a new policy on sewage treatment declaring the district's primary concern is financial feasibility and cost to the taxpayers of proposed sewage treatment plans.

The board has preliminary plans for a $236,000 sewage treatment plant, but the Regional Water Quality Control Board recently suggested Bolinas and Stinson Beach consider a joint treatment facility before Bolinas proceed with its plans.

Cost of an earlier proposed joint facility was estimated at $3.7 million.

The Bolinas board is to meet tomorrow with the Stinson Beach Water District board to discuss treatment plans. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at the Bolinas district office, 270 Elm Road.

A Joint Trash Bin Is Sought

The Almonte Sanitary District board started negotiations Monday with the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District to jointly provide a trash bin to be placed at the Tamalpais Valley fire station.

The aim is to reduce fire hazards which have increased with closing of dumps available in the area. The receptacle will be used for all isorts of debris except wet garbage.

The board also received the Brown and Caldwell feasibility report for the Marin County sewage master plan, but postponed discussion until members have time to study the report.

Mayor-Elect Alioto Views Commuter Tax

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayor-elect Joseph L. Alioto has in mind a commuter tax to help finance police, fire and public parking services.

He said last night $2 million might be a "nominal goal. "I don't think the commuters would wail too much."

INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX

Prison's Economy An Enticing Plum

By DON BRANNING

When Corte Madera and Larkspur were competing recently to get San Quentin Prison within their city limits it was not an odd form of boosterism. San Quentin is a substantial economic entity. It pays $5,385,000 a year in wages to its employees, and its inmate industries grossed $2,425,000 last year.

Corte Madera and Larkspur are interested in San Quentin because it has 3,827 inmates, and 300 of its 633 employees live on the grounds. Gas tax rebates and other tax rebates to communities on a population basis amount to $13 a year per capita. The town that gets San Quentin stands to realize a tidy $53,000 a year from the association.

Who's to get San Quentin hasn't been decided yet, but Larkspur, seeking a competitive advantage, has pointed out that its fire department is closer.

Although they're tightly restricted to keep out of competition with private business, San Quentin's convict industries are substantial enough to draw occasional complaints from outside business.

The San Quentin furniture factory, which sells $960,000 worth of furniture a year at wholesale prices to schools and other tax-supported agencies, was accused in the Legislature recently of competing with private business.

"Actually, we don't compete with private business," said Associate Warden James W. L. Park. "Our prices are no lower than other wholesale prices."

"But San Quentin costs $10 million a year to run. The question has to be what is best for the taxpayer. It doesn't cost the taxpayer anything additional for our industries to operate. It would cost millions to keep the inmates busy in some other way."

San Quentin's other major industries are its clothing factory, which sells $400,000 worth of uniforms a year to other California prisons; the cotton mill, which does a $650,000 yearly business; detergent plant, $275,000 a year; auto repairs, $12,000, and dry cleaning, $25,000.

The prison's industries turned a net profit of only $40,000 last year, which went into a fund to assist other prison industries in the state.

But the industries, of course, have the additional purpose of training inmates to earn a living when they are released.

Elmer L. Howell, the prison's business manager, said that a good deal of thought goes into any new industry that is set up at the prison.

"It has to make something for which there is a market," Howell said. "We went into detergents, because various state agencies reported that the low bidders on detergent contracts were often manufacturers of an inferior quality of detergent who were undercutting the legitimate manufacturers.

"And of cours we don't want an automated factory that can operate with only two or three employees. Idleness is the bane of prison life. We have 694 inmates assigned to the correctional industries, and we wish we were able to make jobs for more."

San Quentin pays no property taxes, but its $5-million-plus payroll is one of the largest in the county. Half of the prison's employees live in Marin County.

The prison spent $250,000 with the Marin County school system last year for contract teachers to instruct the inmates. San Quentin's educational system offers a high school diploma, and some college credits.

San Quentin has a $32,000 yearly phone bill. It spends $13,000 for postage, $7,000 for shop repairs, $15,000 for janitorial supplies, $90,000 for razor blades, soap and other personal items for the inmates. Its clothing bill is $127,000 a year. And its food bill is a whopping $865,000.

The convicts, who make wallets and other hobby items in their cells, sell $80,000 worth of them a year to visitors, including tourists on busses which stop at the gift shop at the east gate of the prison.

San Quentin also spends $80,000 a year on medical and dental supplies and it lays out $47,500 a year to outside medical consultants.

"We operate something very much like a small city," said Howell. "The warden is like the mayor, and I am like the city manager.

"We maintain a water and a sewage system. There's no doubt the prison is a considerable economic factor in the county. I was associated with a prison in Lancaster (Los Angeles County), and when they moved it to Tracy, it made a considerable economic dent in Lancaster."

Arraignment Held On Theft Of Tires

Roland Anthony Schettini, 25, of 33 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Monday on a charge of grand theft of $320 worth of tires and rims from new cars.

Officers said thieves climbed a wire fence at DeLong Chevrolet at 350 Francisco Boulevard to get at new cars and removed the wheels. They questioned a second man but released him pending further investigation.

Novato Can Legally Spend Lights Money

The city of Novato can legally spend money from its general fund to help the merchants put lights on top of the buildings in the downtown area, City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. told the city council last night.

The council set next Tuesday for a special meeting to go over the plan after more details had been worked out with the city staff and the downtown merchants association.

Charles Foster, director of finance, told the council that there was no surplus in the general fun, but that he would see if some of the new monies coming into the city could be available for placing electric lights at regular intervals along the roof lines of the downtown stores.

The council also postponed until next Tuesday's meeting a report on city-county planning for Marin County.

Mayor J. Wayne Womack said that the council might also consider appointments to the two city commissions at a closed session during the same meeting. Councilmen William Jack Adams and Douglas M. Merrill were absent.

The Novato City Council Also:

CORPORATION — approved the purchase of 1.58 acres for $8,700 from Western California Telephone Co. a city corporation yard. The city has been using the telephone company's yard.

CONSULTANTS — Heard a report from planning director Mark P. David that the downtown study committee would interview three planning consultants before recommending hiring one for a downtown study. The three are Arthur D. Little Co. Larry Smith Co. and Real Estate Research, all San Francisco.

APPEAL — Upheld the planning commission and denied an appeal by the Atlantic and Pacific Building Corp. on the requirement of two parking places for each apartment unit in a proposed apartment devleopment in the Loma Verde area. The developer asked for one and one-half parking places per apartment.

PARKING — Adopted two temporary parking restrictions. The west side of First Street between Grant Avenue and Industrial Way will become a loading zone Dec. 6-30. This was done at the request of the post office which will use an empty building during the Christmas rush. The council also approved a stop sign on Bahia Drive at H Lane when large gravel trucks are hauling rock out of the area.

LIGHTING — Heard a report that a new pole and light would be installed on South Novato Boulevard between Warner Creek and Center Road.

TAX STAMPS — Passed a property transfer tax ordinance of 55 cents per $500, identical to the county ordinance.

CORPS — Approved the neighborhood youth corps agreement with Marin County whereby the city gets custodial help and clerical help by paying only the state compensation insurance.

CONTINUED — Continued until Dec. 12 awarding of a janitorial services contract, a report from the council golf course committee, and a request for rezoning from single to multiple family for two lots at 1612 and 1616 Center Road by Westwood Inc.

Three Injured As Car Hits Tree

Three high school students from Mill Valley were injured yesterday when their car smashed into a tree on West Blithedale Avenue at 8:05 a.m.

The driver, William K. Bleyle, 16, of 630 West Blithedale Avenue, told police he may have fallen asleep at the wheel.

Passenger Timothy C. Morgan, 16, of 227 West Blithedale Avenue, was knocked unconscious and was taken to Franklin Hospital, San Francisco, after being examined at the scene by a doctor living nearby. His condition was not available today.

Another passenger, Steven C. Carlile, 16, of 545 West Blithedale Avenue was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut righ cheek, multiple bruises and a neck strain.

$650 In Property Stolen From Autos

Property worth $650 was reported stolen Monday from two cars parked in San Rafael.

William Peter Talent of 355 Canal Street, Apt. 42, reported to police a $500 tape recorder and tapes worth $50 were stolen from his car parked in a lot near his home. Cameras and binoculars valued at $105 were stolen from a car parked at 78 Woodland Avenue by Robert G. Moe of Pasco, Wash., said police.

New Penicillin For Flu Fight

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (SS) — Swedish scientists have developed a new type of penicillin that is more active against influenza bacteria then ordinary penicillins.

Drs. Costa Tunevall and A. Rune Frisk of the Central Bacteriological Laboratory, Stockholm, report that a single tablet of azidopenicillin produces higher levels of the active drug in the blood than do other penicillins.

Clinical tests of this new antibiotic are underway in patients with respiratory infections, including pneumonia, and in patients with scarlet fever.

$9.1 Million From College Over-Ride Next Five Years

Marin Junior College District trustees learned yesterday that the district can expect about $9.1 million in revenue from its 35-cent over-ride tax in the next five years.

Voters approved the ten-year over-ride tax of 35 cents per $100 in 1962 for expansion of the Kentfield campus and purchase of a site and partial development at a second campus.

Business Mgr. Norman Bird presented a mid-way report at a study session of the trustees and the College Cabinet on the proposed north campus near Novato.

In the first five years, 1962-63 through 1967-68, the district has received $7,985,000 in revenue, Bird reported.

So far $6,760,000 has been spent or has been committed for expenditure, and there will be a balance of $1,225,000 in July 1968, Bird estimated.

This balance added to the expected programs, will provide a total $10,459,000 available for building programs, Bird estimated.

Bird reported that some of the projects financed by the over-ride tax in the past five years have been a new gymnasium, college center, fine arts building, and purchase of most of the north campus site. Funds also have been allocated for a new science building at the Kentfield campus and final payment for the north campus site near Novato.

In a general, informal discussion trustees and cabinet members mulled over other possible sources of revenue such as a bond issue, continuation of the over-ride tax, state and federal funds, but came to no conclusions.

On the table was a 12-year building plan, recommended by Management Economics and Research Inc. of Palo Alto, which would cost about $27 million.

Planning Director Dale Fleming pointed out that the MERI plan called for a large investment in 1970, mainly $13,988,198 for the first permanent buildings at the north campus. Such an outlay at that time couldn't be financed by the over-ride funds, he said.

Possible alternatives to the use of over-ride funds were discussed in general by trustees, who agreed more study was needed, Irwin P. Diamond, dean of students, reported today.

One other way would be going to a bond issue, which would speed up the project or, alternatively, to phase the opening of the Novato campus. The MERI plan recommends the campus open in 1972, said Diamond.

"Trustees came to no definite conclusions last night," he said, "although there were several things said about the need for speeding up building at both Kentfield and Novato."

RELAXING AFTER THE BATTLE

Rights Group Attendance By Four Men Is Requested

The police-community relations committee of the Marin County Human Rights Commission last night appealed to the four young Marin City men who were appointed to the committee in August to attend its meetings.

Chairman Bella H. Aaron said that the four had failed to appear at the past three meetings at the civic center, "and should be told we are a working committee."

CHANCE TO SPEAK

The four are Gregory Baines, James Bullock, Robert Washington and Walter Turner. Their appointment was to give the community's youths a chance to express themselves through an official agency and to give the agency direct exposure to the youths' views.

Rev. John J. O'Connor, a commissioner and member of the committee, said he will appeal personally to the four to attend the next meeting. "I'd hate to lose those guys," he said, "they're very valuable."

"If they are not interested, we should get others who are," said Mrs. Aaron.

"TOWN MEETING"

She also expressed disappointment that the committee's community forum subcommittee, set up to organize a "town meeting" in Marin City, had failed to meet once since it was appointed several months ago. Members of the subcommittee were invited to last night's meeting, she said, but none came.

The members are Douglas Quiett, Mrs. Alice Curry, Mrs. Dorothy Jones, James Coleman and Gregory Baines. Quiett is chairman of the subcommittee.

"I don't think we should give up on it," said Mrs. Aaron, "but should keep pushing at it until we get something going."

Committee members agreed to meet in January with the subcommittee, and to invite representatives of all Marin City groups to attend the meeting.

FIVE PRESENT

Five of the 12 committee members were present last night. Absent were the four young men and Arthur L. Brown, Lanny Berry and Perry Howell.

The police-community relations committee also:

LAWMEN — Set a meeting with representatives of all law enforcement agencies in the county Jan. 20 at 9 a.m. in the civic center to discuss citizens' rights and responsibilities under the law.

OFFICER — Asked Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos to assign a second police-community relations deputy to Marin City to work with Deputy William J. Dews.

Redwood Park Help Is Asked

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has been asked by top officials of the Sierra Club to support legislation establishing Redwood National Park in Humboldt and Del Norte counties.

Dr. Edgar Wayburn, president, and other officers of the Sierra Club talked yesterday with Reagan and told him they hope the U.S. Senate bill creating a 64,000-acre national park will be amended to provide for a 70,000-acre park.

"We indicated we wanted his support," Wayburn said following the conference. "But we did not seek a commitment."

The federal bill, sponsored by U.S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel, R-Calif., has passed the Senate.

Negro Claims Firing Over His White Wife

A Negro carpenter complained yesterday to the Marin County Human Rights Commission that he was fired by a contractor for the Manzanita Community Center in Marin City because his wife is white.

His complaint was presented last night to the commission's police-community relations committee, which the commission has designated to investigate and conciliate disputes involving alleged discrimination.

Chairman Bella H. Aaron declined to disclose the carpenter's name, explaining disclosure might make conciliation "more difficult."

The journeyman carpenter claimed that he was fired Nov. 4, a few days after his wife picked him up at work. His complaint was the first to the commission since county supervisors adopted the grievance procedure Sept. 12, said Mrs. Aaron.

The commission's secretary, Mrs. Ilys K. Hernandez, said the complaint was received yesterday in the mail.

The carpenter complained that he had been led to believe he would have five months work on the $379,450 project.

Marin City Community Services District directors awarded the construction contract July 26 to Filippo Construction Co. of San Rafael after the contractor and subcontractors signed an agreement guaranteeing employment of minority workers.

Mrs. Aaron promised prompt handling of the complaint.

Marijuana Case Hearing Is Set

Chico Marcado, 50, of 585 Midway Street, Novato, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court Monday, to charges of possession of marijuana and possession of an amphetamine or barbiturate after previously being convicted of the same offense.

Preliminary hearing was set for Dec. 15 at 1:30 p.m.

Innocent Plea On Marijuana

Ronald Jackson Hall, 35, of San Francisco, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court Monday to a charge of possession of marijuana. Preliminary hearing was set for Dec. 5 at 11 a.m.

Hall was arrested Sunday by Fairfax police, who said he had two plastic bags containing marijuana in his coat pockets while at 114 Taylor Drive, Fairfax.

Police were led to Hall after a check of his car outside the house yielded the butt of a marijuana cigarette, officers said.

Pay Phone Burgling Trial Is Continued

Jury trial for Wilbur Rodgers, 32, of Los Angeles, was continued to Jan. 2, 1968, yesterday after Judge Joseph G. Wilson was told Rodgers is entering a Southern California hospital for medical care.

Rodgers, accused of burgling a pay telephone box at Marin General Hospital on Nov. 27, 1967, was to have stood trial in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

Bring Viet Troops Home Plea Defeated

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A resolution urging "the prompt return of American soldiers from Vietnam" was defeated by Cambridge voters, 17,742 to 11,349. Both critics and backers of the Johnson administration's policy on Vietnam said they were encouraged by the vote.

In Washington, Democratic National Committee Chairman John M. Bailey described the vote as "an encouraging endorsement of President Johnson's policies."

Harvard University economist and former U.S. Ambassador to India John Kenneth Galbraith said, "the administration will make a grave mistake if they assume that this is anything but a vote of no confidence."

The question appeared on municipal election ballots Nov. 7, but counting was delayed until Tuesday to allow for absentee ballots.

The resolution was approved in four of the city's 11 wards, and all four covered so-called "academic sections" of the city that is home to Harvard, Radcliffe and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Council Approves Plan For New Restaurant

An appeal for approval of building a Jack-In-The-Box restaurant on busy Sir Francis Drake Boulevard was granted last night by the San Anselmo City Council.

The council required, however, that exit from the restaurant — primarily a food pick-up firm — must be onto the street to one side, Arbor Road, rather than on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

USE PERMIT

The application by Jack-In-The-Box Development Corp., Hayward, for the use permit had been denied by the San Anselmo Planning Commission on grounds that the restaurant would increase traffic noise.

The solution of exit on Arbor Drive, however, was presented to the council by David W. Delano, vice president of the restaurant chain.

The council continued action on imposition of restrictions in building another restaurant, Der Wienerschnitzel, at 111 Red Hill Avenue. A use permit has been granted William A. Landtbom, but he was asked to meet again with city staff members to work out remaining difficulties.

CLEANING WORKS

The council granted the request of Habit Dyeing and Cleaning Works, 324 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, for a 25-foot, 15-minute loading zone to replace two-hour parking.

The San Anselmo City Council Also:

ORDINANCES — Adopted a documentary stamp tax ordinance so San Anselmo can get its share of county property transfer taxes. The county has already adopted such an ordinance. A proposed ordinance to increase the minimum size of all new residential lots from 5,000 square feet to 7,500 square feet was not acted upon. No action was taken on a proposed animal control ordinance.

COMMITTEE — Heard a citizen's committee for the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council on a proposal that a Big Brothers program be started in the San Anselmo-Fairfax area. John R. Palunco Jr., committee chairman of San Anselmo, said underprivileged children would be sponsored by volunteers who would supply recreation and association. He said the plan has begun in many counties and states, but San Anselmo-Fairfax would be the first in Marin County.

SOLD — Agreed to sell to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. 38 street lights and electroliers still owned by the city on San Anselmo Avenue. An old lighting system in the Morningside Court area also will be turned over to the company for maintenance.

ACCEPTED — Accepted by resolution the subdivision of Woodside Court, a short street off Woodside Drive.

APPROVED — Installation of street lights at 435 Scenic Avenue, 14 Foothill Road, and near 356 Redwood Road. Rejected installation or a street light near 1228 San Anselmo Avenue.

RECEIVED — A letter from San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce recommending that the city accept Robson property offerd as a city park. No action has been taken by the council pending further study.

Surgery Rate Hikes Seen At Marin General Hospital

An increase in the surgery rates at Marin General Hospital will soon be necessary, Comptroller Thomas Sinna reported to Marin Hospital District directors last night.

Sinna said that although room rates have gone up at the hospital, the rates for surgery have not. The fees at the hospital are still substantially below those of other hospitals, he said.

NO DATE SET

Sinna said he couldn't predict what the surgery increases will be until he completes a cost analysis for every department of the hospital and compares it with the charges at other hospitals.

The directors heard a report on the Community Mental Health Center, which is 40 per cent complete, and decided to begin action on furnishings and landscaping. The Will Ross hospital supply company will present a prospectus on furnishings which will be needed, and local landscape architects will be polled to determine which would be interested in doing the landscaping.

Administrator Ray K. Bolinger reported the hospital has received no oreders from the state on Medi-Cal cuts which were restored by a court decision and is still proceeding with Medi-Cal as it was prior to September 1, with the exception of allowing patients to stay longer than a fixed eight days.

Marin Hospital District Board also

APPROVED — An agreement in which Marin County Assumes any liability for blood and urine alcohol tests of suspected drunks was approved.

FINANCE — Received an audit by Hood and Streng, accountants, showing the hospital is continuing to turn a 2.5 to 3 per cent profit. It had a net of $162,092 on a $5,537,848 gross this year, compared with a net of $107,835 on a $4,124,373 gross last year.

TRANSFER — The directors approved transfer of $60,000 from the general to the equipment fund for payment of X-ray equipment purchase.

Coroner Lists Cause Of Death

Death of Mrs. Marjorie Damner Talbott, 33, of Laurel Grove Avenue, Ross, was listed as an apparent suicide today by the Marin County Coroner's Office.

Mrs. Damner died at her home Nov. 13. Deputy Coroner Keith Craig said an autopsy showed death due to barbituate intoxication. She was found dead in her bed by her mother, Lillian Damner.

Private funeral was held on the day of her death.

Running Youths Arrested; Market Alarm Rings

Richard B. Deem, 19, of 814 Hacienda Way, San Rafael, and a 15-year-old youth were arrested by police last night after they were seen running from Charlie's Market, Fourth and G Streets, as the burglar alarm rang.

Deem was booked in Marin County Jail on suspicion of burglary and carrying a concealed weapon. He was due to appear in Marin Municipal Court today. The youth was booked in Juvenile Hall for investigation of burglary.

Police said they caught the two suspects at 11:05 p.m. and Deem was found to be carrying a tire iron and a large flat knife. A check of the marked disclosed a pay telephone pried from the wall but intact.

Hub Seeks Ross Joining City's Library System

San Anselmo's City Council last night authorized a member of the San Anselmo Library Board to propose to the Town of Ross that it join the library system.

The member, Louis H. Yates, said he will arrange a meeting with Ross Council in the near future to discuss the possibility. At present, Ross is a menber of the county library system, but has no public library facility.

Ross has the largest number of non-resident card members of the San Anselmo Library, a total of 274.

San Anselmo City Administrator Alfred C. Kaeppel said if Ross residents agree, the union probably could be effected by Ross setting up its own library district, then contracting with San Anselmo for full use of it's library.

An alternative, he said, would be for San Anselmo to include Ross in its library district. Kaeppel said San Anselmo is receiving $43,540 in library tax revenue for the 1967-68 year. He said Ross is paying $13,976 into the county library system for the same year.

If Ross joins San Anselmo's library district, he said, the combined revenue — barring an unexpectedly large operation cost increase — should result in a substantial tax rate saving for both cities.

Church Of God Wins Building Site Approval

The San Rafael Assembly of God Church, now located at 517 D Street, may build a new church in Santa Venetia with a seating capacity of 100.

Decision came today from County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill, who had taken the application under submission two weeks ago.

Rev. Robert V. Phillips said his congregation needs a church with a minimum seating capacity of 150

Cordill approved the new church site but limited the seating capacity to 100, the maximum number of classrooms in the main building to 13, and ruled that the plans be subject to design review before site work begins.

Presidential Politics Ruled Out By Percy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Sen. Charles H. Percy insists there is no trace of presidential politics in an effort by his home-state Illinois supporters to raise $100,000 to help finance his Senate office.

Nor, said Percy, does the fund bear any resemblance to the one which exploded into political trouble for Richard M. Nixon when he was running for vice president 15 years ago.

"It's a mistake to compare them," the Illinois senator said in an interview.

WORLD NOT

Percy, who plans to leave Dec. 6 on a personally financed world tour, said again he is not a candidate for he 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

In Chicago, Thomas J. Houser, a lawyer who managed Percy's Senate campaign last year, said a group of supporters is trying to raise a minimum of $100,000 a year to defray the expenses the senator faces in maintaining offices in Washington, Chicago and Centralia, Ill.

Houser said it is "simply erroneous" to consider the fund a part of any national campaign move in Percy's behalf.

He said Percy has spent $70,000 of his own money this year—his first in the Senate—to pay office expenses in excess of congressional allowances.

PERSONAL WEALTH

"Despite the fact that he has some personal wealth, this is a burden some of his supporters want to help him with," Houser said.

Percy became a millionaire in business before he turned to politics.

"I thought it was a very nice gesture on those people's part," said Percy. "The allowances here are simply inadequate. You just can't possibly maintain on a Senate allowance an adequate office for a state the size of Illinois."

Percy said he couldn't compute off-hand just how much the official allowance is. It is based on several factors, including the size of the state a senator is from and staff size.

He has a staff of about 40 but his official allowance is sufficient only for 22 employees. Percy said he already is putting his $30,000 Senate salary and all his speechmaking fees back into the cost of running his office.

Percy said the money the Houser group is soliciting would be controlled by a committee, carefully audited and used to help cover staff salaries and expenses, mailing, printing, reports to Illinois residents and similar expenses.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California State Automobile Association reports many ski resorts in the Northern California mountains are tentatively planning to open Saturday.

Blank Company Checks Stolen

A supply of blank company checks was stolen over the Thanksgiving weekend from the George T. Gerhardt Co. of Sausalito, and one check has already been cashed, Sausalito police reported today.

The check was cashed at Hayden's Market in Marin City for approximately $122, police said.

The supply of 32 checks and a small amount of change were stolen the night of Nov. 23-4 from the Gerhardt safe, which was not locked. The thief entered the metal stamping plant at Bridgeway and Nevada Street by prying a sliding door.

More Violence In Malaysia

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — The Malaysian government mobilized civil defense groups today as reports came in of more communal violence between Malays and Chinese in northwest Malaysia.

Deputy Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak said the civilians would be deployed along coastal areas where order has been restored to free police and army troops to quell new rioting in the interior. It was the sixth straight day of racial clashes between Malays and Chinese in the northwest part of the country.

Prime Minister Tunku Abdel Rahman broadcast an appeal for calm and blamed the riots on Communist terrorists and sympathizers of Mao Tse-tung.

Republican Blast At Wallace's Drive

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's Republican national committeewoman, calling presidential hopeful George Wallace a "racist who can't possibly be elected President," says conservative Republicans shouldn't have anything to do with him.

Ann Bowler said yesterday that "90 per cent of the women in the California Federation of Republican Women are conservatives and the average woman in the group wouldn't touch Mr. Wallace with a 10-foot pole."

Sanitary Directors Find Discrepancy Of $77,139

Directors of Richardson Bay Sanitary District last night discovered a discrepancy of $77,139 in the operation and maintenance cost for the district given in the Brown and Caldwell Sewage report, according to Stcy. Alfred O. Pratesi.

In a meeting last week, the board asked the county board of supervisors to hold off action on the county-wide consultant engineering report until the district could check out some differences.

In the adjourned meeting last night, board members compared the district's records with those in the report and found the actual operation cost to be $84,561, instead of the reported $161,700, Pratesi said.

Individual members will check for another $3,000 disparity in figures before the next regular meeting Dec. 19, according to Pratesi, who added, "we just want to clear the record. The report showed our operation to be the highest in the county but our records show it is a normal operating expense."

Board members last night also voted themselves a raise in pay from $25 per meeting to the statutory limit of $40, according to Pratesi.

The secretary explained that as the district has no plant manager the five board members actually take care of the management and thus feel entitled to the higher salary.

Three Drunken Driving Fines

Three persons were sentenced in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving offenses.

William Oliver Sutton, 47, of San Francisco was fined $230 and placed on six months probation. He was arrested by San Rafael police at Jacoby and Bellam roads Nov. 24.

Vernon E. Gilstrap, 58, of 59 Madrone, Woodacre, was fined $174 and placed on six months probation. San Anselmo police arrested him Nov. 18 on Center Boulevard.

SAFETY PLEA: COLORING OF INSECTICIDES

Insecticides and pesticides should have some definite coloring or markings so that the Colombian tragedy will not recur, Marin County supervisors declared yesterday.

At Supervisor Peter H. Behr's suggestion, the supervisors asked Agricultural Commissioner Richard T. Straw and William Desmond, chief of environmental health, to determine whether insecticides can be colored so that they would stand out.

Behr referred to the death of 77 persons in Colombia from bread baked with deadly parathion insecticide. "So often such accidents are considered unavoidable," said Behr. But he said the use of special colors or radioactive tracers in insecticides and pesticides might prevent the recurrence of such mass tragedies.

Cutbacks Held Hurting Crippled Children Aid

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Two legislators say Reagan administration cutbacks are barring hundreds of children from free care under the state's crippled children treatment program. The governor says it's all in how you define a crippled child.

The year-long dispute between the Republican governor and Democratic legislators over crippled children financing continued yesterday. Assemblyman Robert W. Crown, D-Alameda, introduced a bill for an emergency appropriation of $750,000 to restore cuts in service.

Crown said that in August, the state told counties to stop authorizing free care for children with about 100 crippling ailments, the most common being "mild" hearing defects and crossed eyes. The state said higher costs and doctor fees made the move necessary.

Blockhouse Not Close To Rocket

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)— The "blockhouse" for Saturn 5 moon rocket launchings is a four-story building located next to the rocket's towering assembly building, about three and one-half miles from the launch pad.

The structure bears no resemblance to the round concrete and steel blockouses located only a few hundred yards from the launch pads of smaller rockets. But its job is the same—to control a space machine during its countdown and launch.

Legislators Charge Obscene College Play

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Five Southern California legislators charged that "taxes are being used to finance obscenity on the campus" at California State College at Fullerton.

The five Republicans from Orange County said yesterday they are resigning as Friends of California State College at Fullerton in protest over the campus staging of a play in which an erotic sex act was portrayed.

The legislators are Sens. John G. Schmitz of Tustin and James E. Whetmore of Fullerton, and Assemblymen Robert E. Badham of Newport Beach, John V. Briggs of Fullerton and Robert H. Burke of Huntington Beach.

In a joint statement, the five said they cannot belong to a group backing "a college where this kind of moral degradation receives faculty approval." They said they plan to determine whether a recurrence can be prevented.

They added, "We cannot condone or tolerate the use of tax-supported educational facilities for public demonstrations" of erotic sex acts "whether simulated or real."

Future Airport Study Approved

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The city Public Utilities Commission has approved a study of a Bay Area regional airport system from 1975 to 2000.

The action was taken yesterday after Utilities General Manager James Carr said, "There are fundamental engineering policy questions that must be related to air traffic needs for the entire Bay Area beyond 1975 when our current $110-million expansion program will be completed."

One question, he said, will be whether to divert traffic in the future to Oakland or San Jose.

Reagan Plans Legislation For Rapid Transit Systems

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan says he will propose legislation during the next regular session to enable urban areas to implement local taxes to finance rapid transit systems.

In a news release, the governor said yesterday that possible revenue sources could be a gasoline sales tax, increased motor vehicle taxes or a utility tax.

He said he is opposed to statewide financing for rapid transit — such as has been proposed for a Los Angeles rapid transit system — but thinks local financing would give voters more control while sparing rural taxpayers from "taxes they do not want or need."

Reagan estimated that a four per cent sales tax on gasoline would raise $13 million a year in the San Francisco area and $40 million in Los Angeles.

The local property taxpayer should not be burdened further with rapid transit taxes, Reagan said.

The fourth wedding anniversary is the Linen or Silk Anniversary.

Mental Hospitals Probe Planned

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A three-member Senate committee, headed by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, will investigate conditions at Sonoma and Napa state hospitals.

Sens. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, and George R. Moscone, D-San Francisco, were the other members named by the Senate Rules Committee yesterday to report to the 1968 legislature early in February on the level of care and staffing at the mental hospitals.

Library Needs Study Is Urged

Citizens committees should study the library needs of both upper and lower Ross Valley, the Marin County Board of Supervisors decided yesterday.

A host of Corte Madera residents opposed any consolidation of the library with Larkspur, pointing out that the existing branch library in Corte Madera is conveniently located for those who have no transportation.

County librarian Virginia V. Keating reported that she has been seeking larger library accommodations in Corte Madera but has been unable to find a suitable building. As soon as a site is found, Mrs. Keating said she would come to the supervisors, seeking increased outlay for rent and maintenance.

"Don't eliminate the Corte Madra library," said Town Manager Ronald L. Usher. "However inadequate, it is a good library."

The supervisors decided that a committee be formed or reactivated to study the library needs of Larkspur, Corte Madera and Kentfield, in cooperation with county staff members.

The supervisors also decided that a similar citizens committee should study the library needs in upper Ross Valley — Ross, San Anselmo, Fairfax and Sleepy Hollow.

Home Is Looted

Successor Discussed For Lewis

Someone should be groomed to succeed Marin's veteran communications director J. Mansfield Lewis, who will retire a year from next January, Marin County supervisors agreed yesterday.

But they balked at the county administrator's suggestion that the new assistant be hired at $1,400 per month a full year before Lewis is due to retire.

The supervisors put the matter over a week to ask Lewis whether an assistant really needs a whole year to break in on his job.

Fred Stone, assistant director of communications, retires at the end of this month. Supervisors agreed that the post of senior radio technician should be created to fill Stone's position.

Theft of Jewelry, Clothing Reported

Someone entered her house through an unlocked door and took jewelry and clothing valued at $470, Ethel L. Patterson of 110 Raposa Vista, Novato, reported to Novato police.

The burglary occurred between noon and 8 p.m. Thanksgiving day, but was not reported to police until yesterday, according to police reports.

Irate Taxpayers To Hear Sonoman

The Irate Taxpayers of Marin has invited George Crane, president of the irate taxpayers group in Sonoma County, to speak at the Marin meeting at 8 p.m. Dec. 21 in Room 218 of the San Rafael courthouse.

Also at the Monday meeting, according to Mrs. Dannith Wiess, publicity chairman, the Marin group approved membership application forms, asked supervisor candidates to address it on their fiscal policies, and voted a 10-minute limit on discussion of specific issues at meetings.

Mobile Home Park Approved By Board

A mobile home park for 441 units on 62 acres of the Burdell Ranch next to the Sonoma County border won the unanimous approval of the Marin County Board of Supervisiors yesterday.

Developer John E. Kenny of Oakland, and his associates John Hill and John Fahlstrom, announced they will put in recreation facilities like swimming pools, sauna baths, arts and crafts buildings and recreation halls for use by the community.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss, moving for approval, noted that there is no opposition to this rezoning request. "The planning commissioners approved it unanimously and this is almost unheard of," said Gnoss. He added that the location was excellent, out of the fog belt and sheltered from winds.

Gnoss predicted that wealthy, professional people will live in the trailer park.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, argued that this 62 acres of "choice land" should not be considered separately, and that surrounding ridges should be taken up at the same time as possible open spaces.

E. Warren McGuire, attorney for the developers, said that the 678-acre Burdell Ranch is permitted only about 800 dwelling units under the Novato Master Plan. Since 441 units of mobile homes will occupy the 62 acres, the remaining 600 acres would be permitted only 360 units.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

EOC — Held over the appointment of a member to the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council to succeed Florence Scott, who resigned. Supervisor John F. McInnis asked for at least a week's delay so that the League of Women Voters could consider recommending a candidate.

LEGISLATIVE WORKSHOP — Since Marin legislators are held up in Sacramento with an extended special session, supervisors decided they may go to Sacramento for a joint session with Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley. The county administrator will try to set up a Sacramento meeting.

BIDS — At Supervisor William A. Gnoss' urging, supervisors asked the administrator to study the possibility of restricting certain bids to Marin County suppliers. Gnoss said he does not feel the county should bypass Marin suppliers of such items as automobiles and shrubbery for landscaping.

SUPERVISORS UNIT — Appointed Supervisor Gnoss as Marin representative to the North Coastal County Supervisors Association. Gnoss is past president of the association.

MARINE PATROL — Referred to the sheriff and to the City-County Services Committee a request by Bel-Marin Keys Community Services District that the sheriff's marine patrol be expanded.

CABLE TV — Filed without comment Tele-Vue Systems' request for a hearing on its rate increase request. No representative from Tele-Vue was at the meeting yesterday.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN — Raised the salary range for assistant county librarian from $683-$829 per month to $790-$960 per month because the present salary range cannot attract the type of qualified person needed to fill the position.

EXTRA HIRE — Approved a $445 outlay to pay for extra hire needed in the Auditor-Controller's office to meet increased workload.

WAR ON POVERTY — Set 4 p.m. Jan. 2 as the time to get answers to the series of written questions posed by San Geronimo Valley residents concerning the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council activities.

AIRPORT FUNDS — Approved an application to the Federal Aviation Agency for 1968-69 funds to complete phase two of the Marin County Airport in Novato, extnding the runway to 3,300 feet, and installing taxiway lighting and fire protection water system.

PARTITION CHANGE — Awarded a $5,063 contract to Tone Tex Specialities Co. of San Rafael to make partition changes in the Data Processing Department at the Civic Center.

MOBILE PARK — Set 1:45 p.m. Dec. 12 as the time for a hearing on the rezoning of 50 acres at 300 Olive Avenue, Novato, for 280 mobile homes.

COFFEE URN — Voted $55 for emergency replacement of an electric coffee urn for the county fire department.

CODE CHANGE — Set for hearing Jan. 2 amendment to subdivision code changing procedures for subdivision landscaping and inprovement plans.

BLACK POINT — Set for hearing Dec. 19 rezoning of several parcels in Black Point area from M-1-H (light industrial) to A-2 (agricultural).

HOLIDAY — Gave first reading to an ordinance substituting the day following Thanksgiving for Columbus Day as a holiday for county employees.

SHOELESSNESS — Asked the Department of Public Works to "explore the feasibility" of a sign banning shoeless persons from the civic center escalator, on which three bare-footed visitors were injured in August, and awarded $10 to Elizabeth Mullen of the county medical department for making the suggestion.

MENTAL HEALTH — Approved three change orders in wiring, meter location and glass for the Community Mental Health Center, the cost totaling $1,091.

REZONING — Denied request of Fernando Clementino for rezoning of 4.37 acres at 496 Olive Avenue, Novato, from limited agricultural to industrial.

ALL EXCITED over the decorated gingerbread houses which have become the highlight of the Cookie Carnival sponsored by the San Rafael Ward Relief Society of the Latter-day Saint Church are Karen, left, and Janis Keller. The annual event will be held on Saturday beginning at 10 a.m. at the chapel on Bon Air Road in Greenbrae.

RAGGEDY ANN AND ANDY TOO

Carnival Spotlights Gingerbread Houses

It's Cookie Carnival time again — and this annual event will be presented by the San Rafael Ward Relief Society of the Latter Day Saints Church on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Beautifully decorated gingerbread houses and gingerbread boys will again be featured. These will be for sale with decorated sugar cookies. Snowballs, anise, hermits and thumbprints will be among the large variety of cookies for sale. There will also be an assortment of fruit and nut breads-orange, date nut, tea rings and homemade bread and rolls from Mormon Pioneer recipes. The Candy Shop will have English toffee, caramels, divinity, peanut brittle and fudge.

The Boutique will have such gifts as Raggedy Ann and Andy, Sleepy Dolls, hand puppets, kissing balls, small Christmas trees, baby quilts, aprons and hand embroidered linens. These are all made by the members of the Relief Society.

There will be a booth for children featuring marshmallow men and small leather goods. There will be a continuous cartoon program for the children. Lunch will be from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Carnival is open to the public. The chapel is located on Bon Air Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Greenbrae.

Mrs. Conrad Reinhardt, Relief Society president, is official hostess. Mrs. W. J. Christopherson, Mrs. Edward Nimer and Mrs. Dean H. Keller are co-chairmen of the event. Committee chairmen are Mesdames William Deaver, Walter Bjerke, Edwin Caldwell, John Greenwood, Leon Hunsaker, Verne L. Halvorson, James E. Gilchrist, Seymour Murray, Charles Peek and Capitola Kimball.

GINGERBREAD HOUSE

2¾ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ginger
⅔ cup molasses
1 egg
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon cloves
⅓ cup brown sugar
½ cup oil

Mix thoroughly and chill for 1 hour. Roll dough on oiled cookie sheet. Bake at 300 degrees for 25 minutes. (Be sure to bake full time. . . . It should be very hard when cool or the roof eaves will break off.) Place pattern on hot bread and cut. 11 x 16 or 12 x 18 pan.

ROYAL ICING

2 egg whites
1 box confectioners sugar
1 teaspoon cream of tartar

Place in double boiler. Heat to "blood" warmth. Then beat until peaks form. (Keep damp cloth on bowl). Add few drops of water as needed.

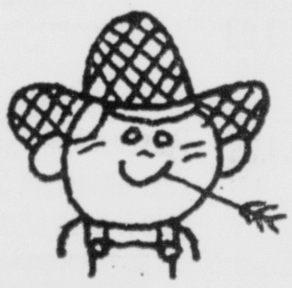
In Calgary It's Traditional To Serve White Hatter Stew

It's traditional for visiting dignitaries to the Canadian city of Calgary to be greeted by the city officials with the present of a white ten-gallon hat and an invitation to try Calgary's official dish — White Hatter Stew.

We pass it along to I-J readers to try as a gift of Mary Biner, women's page editor of the Calgary Herald, who says White Hatter Stew is now a Calgary traditional favorite. The recipe was created by Mrs. Marta Mankowski, executive chef of the Calgary Professional Club.



WHITE HATTER STEW

2½ lb. beef rump or other suitable stew meat cut into cubes
2 large onions, chopped
1/5 of 28 oz. can plum tomatoes (½ cup)
2 tbsp. flour
Oil
Salt and pepper to taste
½ tsp. monosodium glutamate
⅓ tsp. paprika
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
"Bouquet garni" consisting of 2 bay leaves, few peppercorns, thyme, parsley stalks, all wrapped in a piece of cheesecloth
1 cup whole medium-sized mushrooms
½ cup, or more, beer (optional)
1 qt. good brown stock or diluted brown gravy

Heat oil in pan until slightly smoking. Arrange meat cubes in it and put into preheated oven (400F.) for 15 minutes, shaking pan occasionally so meat can brown on all sides. Add onions, pepper, monosodium glutamate, paprika and sprinkle with flour. Continue cooking another 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add tomatoes, "bouquet garni," stock, Worcestershire sauce, beer, and cover the pan. Reduce heat to 300F. and continue cooking until meat is tender. Then arrange stew in casseroles. In the meantime, prepare biscuit crust.

TOP CRUST

4 cups flour
8 tbsp. margairne
2⅔ tbsp. baking powder
1 egg
1 cup milk
Pinch of salt

Mix dry ingredients well. "Work in" margarine. Beat up egg with milk. Make a well in the dry mixture, pour in the liquid and mix together slightly until one lump of dough is obtained. Roll out on floured board to ¼" thickness. Cut out pastry covers the same size as your casseroles. Place dough over stew in casseroles and seal tightly in order to keep all flavour in. Brush tops with milk and bake 15 minutes in hot oven.

Coffeecake Roll Is Good For The Holiday Brunches

Scrambled Eggs Grilled Ham
Hashed Brown Potatoes Toast
Fresh Fruit Coffeecake Roll

COFFEECAKE ROLL

¼ cup milk, scalded
¼ cup butter, soft
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup warm water
1 package active dry yeast
1 egg, beaten until thick
2¼ cups (about) unsifted regular flour
Walnut Filling (see below)

Into the scalded milk, off heat, stir the butter, sugar and salt; cool to lukewarm. In a large mixing bowl, dissolve the yeast in the water; stir in lukewarm milk mixture, egg and 1 cup of the flour; beat until smooth. With a spoon, then your hand, work in enough more flour to have dough come away from sides of bowl. Cover bowl tightly with transparent plastic wrap. Let rise in warm place until doubled — about 1 hour. Punch down. Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; roll out to a 14 by 10 inch rectangle. Spread with Walnut Filling; roll up tightly; seal edge well by pinching to dough; seal ends by folding over several times and pinching. Place seam side down on buttered cookie sheet and let rise in warm place until doubled — about 30 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees until brown — about 45 minutes.

WALNUT FILLING

In a 1-quart saucepan mix together ½ cup finely grated walnuts, ½ cup sugar, ⅛ teaspoon cinnamon, grated rind of 1 orange (2 teaspoons) and ¾ cup milk. Boil gently for 10 minutes, stirring often; continue boiling, stirring constantly, for 5 minutes or until mixture is reduced to about ¾ cup. Cool before using.

Zebra Almond Brittle Has A New Twist

"Zebra Almond Brittle" is a new twist on a familiar candy treat. Whole almonds in a syrup-sugar-and-butter mixture are "striped" with chocolate, and the candy is broken with a wooden spoon into serving pieces when it is completely cold.

ZEBRA ALMOND BRITTLE

1 cup blanched whole almonds
Salt
2 cups sugar
⅓ cup light corn syrup
⅔ cup water
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 tablespoon each cream and light corn syrup.

Spread almonds on shallow baking pan; toast at 300 degrees about 15 minutes, turning occasionally to brown evenly. Sprinkle lightly with salt; cool. Combine sugar, syrup, water and butter; cook, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking, without stirring, until candy thermometer registers 300 degrees F., or until syrup separates into hard brittle threads when dropped into cold water. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla, soda and almonds. Pour onto cooky sheet. When slightly cooled, pull edges to make a thin sheet. Combine chocolate pieces, cream and 1 tablespoon corn syrup. Heat over very low heat, stirring occasionally, just until mixture can be blended smooth. Cool slightly, then drizzle over brittle, zebra-stripe fashion. When candy is thoroughly cold, break into pieces.

Makes about 1¼ lbs. candy.

PREVIEW OF '68 REVUE

The cast members of the Junior League of San Francisco's upcoming "Once On a Stage Out West" gathered last night to preview the Feb. 16 Gala Revue which will be the league's big fund raiser in place of the usual fashion show. Here arriving at the league party at the Presidential Suite of the Mark Hopkins Hotel are, from left, Marin cast members Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cox and Mrs. Malcolm Skall, with hatcheck girl Shirley Terry. Other Marin cast members will be Charles E. Prescott Jr. and Kingsley L. Rice Jr. (Bill Cogan photos)

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Party Time For Marin's Leaguers

By MOLLY MARIN

Among the Junior League members and their husbands from Marin who gathered for dinner at the Mark Hopkins Hotel last night following the Junior League cast party preview for its upcoming show were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert W. Morrison of Belvedere, Malcolm Skall of Kentfield, George Jewett of Ross and Richard C. Otter of Belvedere. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill of San Francisco. She is chairman for the Junior League revue.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES P. Davies are holding an open house on Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Reeder Butterfield, who are new neighbors of the Davies. They purchased the Davies' Indian Valley ranch home in Novato earlier this year. A number of the Davies' friends will be seeing Charles' and Elizabeth's new home on Squaw Peak for the first time Sunday.

CHRISTMAS IN MEXICO is on the program for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bastian of Belvedere. They plan to fly to Mexico City, accompanied by their son, James. Their daughter, Anne, who attends Radcliffe College in Cambridge, Mass., will join the family in Mexico City for a south of the border holiday.

THE RECENT visit of the George Steigers of San Rafael to Iowa City, Iowa, had a three-fold purpose. They helped daughter Genelle, who is a junior at the University of Iowa, celebrate her birthday, and were on hand for Dad's Day there. They also welcomed a new granddaughter, Dana Syverud, daughter of the Stephen Syveruds. Mrs. Syverud is their other daughter, Christine. Stephen is an assistant professor at the university and finishing his Ph.D. requirements in music, while Christine is completing her Master's in music. The Syveruds plan to return to this area next summer to live.

TRAVELING MARINITES meet in the most exotic places. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Davies of Belvedere, touring the South Pacific, encountered fellow Belvedereans, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Irmer and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bernstein in the lobby of the Aimeo Hotel in Moorea. They had also met a party from Sausalito in Tahiti. Highlight of Milly and Bob's trip so far has been the Blue Lagoon voyage among the Fiji Islands on a 112-foot yacht. New Zealand, Australia, New Caledonia and Samoa are on the couple's itinerary.

DESPITE DEVALUATION

Christmas As Usual For The Queen

By MARGARET SAVILLE

During her horseback rides at weekends on her estate surrounding Windsor Castle, she is looking for a tall fir which can be cut just before the long Christmas weekend. The family will spend the holidays at Windsor.

The tree, part of the Christmas tradition which the queen loves, will be gaily decorated and set up in a corner of the castle ballroom to be illuminated at dusk on Christmas Day.

Holly and mistletoe will be brought in to decorate the rooms, along with masses of white chrysanthemums from the hot houses. The kitchens will be busy cooking roast turkey, Christmas pudding and mince pies for the traditional dinner.

BEFORE LEAVING Buckingham Palace for the castle, about 25 miles up the Thames River from London, the queen will be the chief guest at what must rank as the world's most exclusive Christmas staff party.

The Buckingham Palace Social Club gives the annual buffet dance for the staff of the royal household. The queen dons a ballgown, lends one of her white and gold state rooms for the evening, and goes along to dance with her chauffeur or telephone operator or perhaps the chef. Prince Philip, her husband, partners with a housemaid or sewing maid.

Princess Margaret, the queen's sister, once danced with a junior footman who long had cherished a secret admiration of her and enlivened the moment by reciting a long romantic poem he had composed in her honor.

Once Queen Elizabeth, the queen mother, faced with a blushing gardener who had never been round a dance floor before, said, "Well, just hold my hand and walk round but please don't tread on my toes." He didn't.

While in London, the queen also will slip out one day for her only shopping expedition of the year to choose personal Christmas presents.

ALL HER CLOTHES and wants of the year are brought to her at the palace or purchased by a lady-in-waiting in accordance with court etiquette. But she can shop in public if she is buying gifts for somebody else. So she makes the most of the opportunity at one of the big department stores.

She drives up to a side door and is escorted around by the manager as she goes through the long list — four children and 21 godchildren for a start, not to mention friends and relatives.

The queen does not pay cash. The checks go later in triplicate to the treasurer at Buckingham Palace.

FOR THE CHRISTMAS weekend, Elizabeth invites the queen mother, Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden with their two children, the Duke and Duchess of Kent with their two, Princess Alexandrea and her businessman husband, Angus Ogilvy, with their two, and the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester with their younger son, Prince Richard.

Prince Phillip's widowed mother, Princess Andrew of Greece, who now makes her home at Buckingham Palace, is expected to join the party, attend a carol service in the local church and exchange their gifts on returning home. These are generally modest because expensive presents are reserved by custom for birthdays.

They also get to see Prince Philip the way the public never does — dressed up as Santa Claus.

PRESS GUIDES ARE AVAILABLE

A new guide for press chairmen who are interested in getting news to the Marin Women's Section of the Independent-Journal is now available at the San Rafael main office and Mill Valley, Tiburon and Novato offices of the newspaper.

The booklet, "Getting News Into Your Newspaper" is issued as a service of the Independent-Journal Women's Section to assist press chairmen for Marin women's organizations.

Features of the guide explain policies of coverage, how to handle news stories and meeting notices, and what pictures are used.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Why Are Dogs Easier To Train Than Intelligent Human Beings?

DEAR HELEN:

They say humans have the highest intelligence of living creatures. I'm not so sure!

I trained my dog to do almost anything I say in three months. Yet I've been as repetitious as a broken record with our sons for nigh on to 10 years, and it's just beginning to penetrate that they must comb their hair, wash their whole faces and brush their teeth each morning and evening, even if I am not behind them breathing fire.

If the human brain is so great, how come it takes so long to make a break-through? — OVER AND OVER AGAIN

DEAR O AND OA:

The human brain, especially that of a small boy, is also resistive to what it considers unnecessary.

If your broken record on the hair, face and teeth theme is paying off after only 10 years, you're lucky! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I am a heavy smoker. I have heard that hypnosis can stop the habit. Do you know anything about this? — HOPEFUL

DEAR HOPEFUL:

Only what I have read, that hypnosis sometimes helps, maybe, but you have to be the right kind of subject. In any event, be sure to check this out with your doctor before you do anything in this direction.

If any of my readers have had personal experience with hypnosis as a possible cure for excessive smoking or drinking, I'll be happy to print some of your comments. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Some time back a girl wrote complaining about her military father who treated the family like The Troops, demanding absolute, rigid obedience, even to a morning line-up and dismissal, fines for talking over three minutes on the telephone, and fearsome boyfriend inspection. You agreed this treatment was too much.

I, too, had a Marine Corps Major for a father. He demanded personal perfection from us and tolerated nothing less. He contended that a boy afraid to pass his inspection — you'd better believe it was tough! — wasn't worth the time wasted on him. I was sure I wouldn't survive his first degree interrogations to ever go on a second date, but it never stopped surprising me just how many times he was right.

At 15, I loathed his demands. At 25, I find I can maintain a home, two small children, and a sloppy husband in a fraction of the time it takes my less well prepared contemporaries. Those well installed habits never stop serving me in every phase of life. I am increasingly glad of the regimentation I once despised. Too bad more fathers don't demand these things from their sons also, so their future wives wouldn't have to spend their time as chambermaids and nags.

My mother used to say, as she was busy backing my father up, "Just think of all the character he's building." — NOT RAISED BY THE PSYCHOLOGY BOOK

DEAR NOT:

What builds character is one builds resentment in another, and breaks the spirit of the third. To each his own, and I still like relaxed discipline best. — H.

Housewives Tired Of Grind Get Tips From A Stripper

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A do-it-yourself author advised today that housewives tired of the same old grind may want to add a few bumps.

Libby Jones — a blonde striptease dancer with a figure — 41-26-37 — not quite like the average housewife's, said the amateur stripper first needs a floor-length chemise, gloves, black mesh stockings, bra and panty girdle.

Miss Jones said Jane Housewife should then grab a copy of her book, "How to Strip," and get ready to give the old man the surprise of his life when he comes trudging home from the office.

As she puffed on a cigarette in a long black cigarette holder backstage at a Baltimore burlesque theater, Miss Jones said she thought the book would be good for housewives "and good for their husbands, if they learned that taking it off might inject a new element in a humdrum marriage."

Improvement Club Plans Wilder Play

Thornton Wilder's drama of humor and tragedy in an American family, "The Happy Journey from Trenton to Camden," will be given Tuesday at the San Rafael Improvement Club. The meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m.

The cast will include Todd Norris of Ross, Mollie Squires of Greenbrae, Bob Little of Corte Madera, Bud Livers of Corte Madera, Noreen Ferreri of Kentfield and Marsanne Milmoe of Greenbrae.

Santa To Arrive Afloat For Kids

Movies, toys and treats are being arranged by Mrs. William A. Sparrow, chairman.

Women Voters League Sponsors Luncheon Series

The League of Women Voters of Central Marin is sponsoring a series of monthly luncheons with guest speakers. Speaking at this month's luncheon, which will be held on Dec. 7, will be Mrs. Virginia Keating, librarian of the Marin County Library.

Keeping Linens Looking New For The Holidays—

Nowadays when people refer to household linens they don't really mean "linen" — they mean sheets and pillowcases (usually percale or muslin), bath towels and washcloths (cotton terry), and tablecloths and napkins (often cotton or rayon, with an occasional "real" linen).

Plain whites aren't much of a problem. Hot water, detergent and bleach will keep them looking nice. But the gay colors and patterns that are so popular are something else. First of all, to keep matching sets matching always launder them together. And, to avoid fading, use a warm-water wash for pastels and cold water for bright colors. Dryer drying also helps linens keep their true colors because they aren't faded by the sun.

Pre-treat spots and stains before they have a chance to set. This is especially important for table linens, which are exposed to so many spills. Chlorine bleach can be used for washing white and colorfast pastels.

Towels will stay fluffy and tablecloths easy to iron if you use a fabric softener. Table linens, if removed from the dryer while still damp (use the damp-dry setting if your dryer has one), will be ready to iron without having to be dampened.

Some tablecloths are treated with a stain-resistant finish. These require no special care other than dryer drying or ironing. Though washing makes the finish disappear, the heat of the dryer or iron will restore it.

To keep ironing to a minimum, always remove linens from the dryer promptly, then smooth and fold carefully. Permanent press table and bed linens, requiring no ironing at all, are now available, too.

DRAMA REVIEW

By KARL BARRON

SAN CARLOS — Just a little more than a year ago, I fell in love with petite Patrice Munsel at the Circle Star Theater as she performed "Can-Can" with delightful abandon.

Last night at the same theater, the voltage of my devotion was considerably lowered by an electronic device and a tendency to flatness on the part of my idol. Miss Munsel as Dolly Levi in "Hello Dolly" does not come up to expectations, and we'll get to that in a moment.

NOT BAD

First, however, it is not a bad production. David Tihmar's staging is inventive and choreographer Zoya Leporska has finally realized that a round stage does not necessarily mean that the dancers have to go round and round.

She uses straight lines of weaving bodies, dancers racing through the aisles and then performing, on stage, short turns by trios, quartettes and sextettes, to give variety and excitement. The second act scene in the Harmonica Gardens is a 15-minute spectacular all by itself, with Miss Munsel appearing in gaudy attire at what seems a hundred yards from the stage and swaying down the aisle to the title tune under sprays of lights.

ALL OUT ON PROPS

Scenic designer Hal Shafer, sticking to his minimal suggestive sets, has gone all out on props. Dolly rides in on a horse car, drawn by a two-woman horse, later she boards a real car drawn by a real engine, and the 14th Street Parade is climaxed by a real float. Bill Darby's lighting adds much to the production, shifting from location to individual with excellent emphasis. Costumes in flashy colors by Berman's of Hollywood are good.

I had not seen "Hello Dolly" before and frankly was expecting a little more than I got, considering its continuing Broadway run, its $35 million gross, etc. Aside from the frenetic fervor of the title song, the music by Jerry Herman is forgettable, and Michael Stewart's book is only held together by the charm of Thornton Wilder's original play, "The Matchmaker," upon which it is based.

But back to my personal grief. When Miss Munsel came on, I noticed an unpleasant lump between her charming bosoms, which sure enough turned out to be a body transmitter. This beastly device sputtered at times, and when not sputtering, distorted her lovely tones beyond belief. It is entirely possible that this monstrous thing of transistors and diodes has a grudge against my glamorous star, and is deliberately making her tones flat. In a way, I hope so.

ACTING A DELIGHT

However, Miss Munsel's acting is a delight. She plays Dolly with a broad joy, caresses miserly Vandergelder's cash register, pops about 10 dumplings in her mouth at once, and says "Some paint, some sew, I meddle" with ineffable charm. Jack Bailey plays Vandergelder efficiently.

Really stellar backup playing comes from two young men Garrett Lewis and Skip Martin, as the clerks in Vandergelder's store. They almost steal the show. They are aided by Joanne Horne as Mrs. Molloy. She sings and acts well. Craig Yates deserves credit for his martinet of a head waiter.

David Hubler's handling of the orchestra is adequate, but the sound man's overloading the speakers is inexcusable.

"Hello Dolly" will play nightly except Monday, with Saturday and Sunday matinees, through Dec. 10.

Eye Surgery

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey underwent surgery today at University of Pennsylvania Hospital for removal of cataracts from his left eye.

College Band Concert Set On Saturday

College of Marin Community Band directed by John H. Myers will present its winter concert Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in the theatre of the new fine arts building on the college campus.

This will be the first of the college's music department concerts to be heard in the theater, and Myers said that indications are that acoustics of the hall will be good.

Band compositions programmed are "Scenes from the Louvre" by Norman Dello Joio, "Chester Overture" by William Schuman, Holyrood March by Kenneth Alford and two rarely performed marches by Sousa, "Daughters of Texas" and "Powhatan's Daughters."

The band will also perform an arrangement by Lucien Cailliet of three movements from Francis Poulenc's ballet score "Les Biches." In addition, band transcriptions will be heard of "Aria and Fugue" by Handel and of "Dubinushka" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

Wedding Set

Resner Back To Law Practice

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Attorney Herbert Resner, disbarred for converting $16,000 of a client's funds to his own use, was readmitted yesterday to practice law in California.

In a unanimous ruling, the California Supreme Court said Resner "has convincingly established his rehabilitation and moral fitness by his own statements and those of many attorneys on his behalf."

The ruling said that Resner, 58, San Francisco, has repaid almost $11,000 of the $16,000 although his income dropped to $600 a month since his disbarment in 1960.

More Liberal Policy For Auto Insurance

Only two reasons will be used by most insurance companies for canceling passenger automobile policies after Jan. 1, it was announced today by industry spokesmen.

These will be nonpayment of premiums and suspension of license or registration of the insured or a member of his family.

The new policy terms were announced by National Automobile Underwriters Association and the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters, national rating organizations representing several hundred companies.

The program represents a liberalization of rules put into use five years ago when the cancellation of liability insurance was limited to seven reasons.

The companies announced that the new plan will cover comprehensive, collision, medical payment and uninsured motorist insurance as well as liability insurance.

The new rules will apply to policies written after Jan. 1, 1968, and will apply immediately to renewed policies.

Another Session On Middle School

Reed School District trustees Monday night decided to combine ideas from three sketches of the middle school to be built on the Reedland Woods Site and set another special meeting Friday.

Asst. Supt. John C. Fitch said architect Ron Young's floor plans for the school as divisible multi-use space, will be discussed in a meeting Friday between board members, Supt. H. Joe Edgington and staff, teachers and principals of the district, at 7 a.m. at Del Mar school.

Dr. J. S. Margoliash is president of Congregation Kol Shofar.

Granada School's Bonus Holiday

The four-year-old school was closed for the day after the break occurred Monday afternoon, cutting off the school's entire water supply, according to Reed School District Supt. H. Joe Edgington.

Repair work was completed yesterday and Granada School classes were scheduled to be in session as usual today, Edgington said.

Rabbi Will Speak At Newman Center

Rabbi Morton Hoffman of Congregation Rodef Sholom of San Rafael will speak on "The Jewish Scene Today" at 8:30 p.m. today at College of Marin's Newman Center.

Protestant and Catholic chaplains are now on the Newman Center staff, according to college officials, and possibility of adding a rabbi is being explored by Newman Club officers.

Hub Teens Like Coffee-House Type Of Club

A majority of San Anselmo teen-agers would prefer an informal coffee-house type of recreation club to a large dance hall, the San Anselmo Park and Recreation Commission was told Monday night.

Bruce Belknap, chairman of a city council-appointed teen-age recreation committee, said questionnaires to 240 youngsters disclosed 96 per cent want a teen center, and 83 per cent prefer the more intimate idea of a center.

Belknap reported none of several buildings considered for the suggested center was available, however.

Frank Quinn, director of parks and recreation, reported receipts totaling $2,016.80 from San Anselmo's 60th birthday anniversary in September and October. A budget of $2,000 had been allotted, making the profit $16.80.

The commission recommended that the city council reappoint three incumbent commissioners for new three-year terms. The three are Paul Brand, N. M. Murray and Robert England.

Boyish Looking Hero Wears Rare Medal

By THERON A. NEWELL

Sgt. Duane D. Hackney seemed a little ill at ease as he sat on a chair in his pararescue fatigues, twirling his red beret in his hands. He didn't look any older than most of the boys at Novato High School.

He was though. He was as battle wise a man many years older. His experiences and bravery in Vietnam had won for him a unique distinction.

He is the only living enlisted man to receive the Air Force Cross, created in 1960 and the second highest award given by the Air Force for valor. One other enlisted man has been awarded the cross posthumously. It has also been given to 57 Air Force officers, 18 of them still living.

Hackney also has received the Purple Heart and has been when we got the mayday call to rescue a downed pilot on the recommended for the silver star and the bronze star.

The 20-year-old airman from Flint, Mich., currently assigned to the 41st Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base.

"I may be sent to either the Air Force Academy or to West Point," he said.

The six foot tall, 175 pound sergeant has such a boyish look with his light brown hair and eyes, that he was always kidded about his looks, he said "Boy does your mother know you are out here," his crewmates kidded.

SGT. DUANE D. HACKNEY
The Air Force Cross

"Our outfit was flying out of Na Kom Phonom, Thailand, other side of Mu Gia Pass," he related. It took 45 minutes for his helicopter to get over the pass to the Ho Chi Minh trail area to the spot where the pilot had been shot down.

Hackney was dropped into the jungle on a penetrator line, but could not locate the pilot. He did see the footprints of American boots which are different from those worn by the Viet Cong."

"It got cloudy and the high birds pulled out their support, so we had to turn back," he said.

"Then at 4:45 p.m., we got the second call because a plane had picked up the pilot' mayday call on his beep," Hackney said.

This time the sergeant saw something metallic in a tree which later proved to be a part of the downed plane.

"I went down again on the penetrator and saw the pilot standing in a clearing," he said.

"You almost went over me," the pilot told him.

He got the pilot into the helicopter. The pilot had been wounded on the left leg and head. Hackney put his own parachute on the wounded man so that he would have a chance if they were shot down because they were getting some ground fire.

"We were hit on the left side by what we thought was a 37 millimeter shell which broke our fuel line and it cought fire," he related. He went to the back of the helicopter and got a fire extinguisher and a parachute which was not on fire.

He went up by the front door and was there when an explosion hit the helicopter.

"I was thrown back against the door and it broke loose," he said.

As he and the door started down, he grabbed for the plane and then pulled his ripcord. He was about 200 feet above the gound at the time.

His chute caught on a tree.

"The tree was growing out of a cliff, and the spring of it took up the shock so that I swung there like a pendulum," he recalled.

"I shinnied down the tree and walked to the top of the hill, he said.

It was getting dusk and he did not think that he would be rescued that night, "because if a pilot is left overnight, we seldom get him out alive," he stated.

Luck was with him and he was rescued. He did not learn until later that the helicopter was lost along with his three crewmen and the pilot they had rescued.

Asked what he thought about when he was blown out of the helicopter and stranded in the jungle, he replied that he was angry because he had a valentine on the helicopter for his girl and now he wouldn't be able to send it. He said he was a little excited, but not scared.

"I knew after I was rescued that I had to get right back in a plane and fly, or I would be too frightened to" he said.

So it was just five days later that he was in a plane over the demilitarized zone which got 106 bullet holes in it on the flight. It was then that the colonel decided Hackney was due for transfer — and you don't argue with a colonel," he said.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1967 25

Marin's Major Stores Posting Late Hours For Yule Shoppers

Marin County's major stores are off to a good start in the annual race for the Christmas trade with "Open 'till 9 p.m." notices up most everywhere.

Many smaller shops outside the shopping centers, however, are hanging back a week or two before joining the main stream.

LATE CLOSINGS

While the doors stay open late Monday through Friday in the main Fourth Street stores in San Rafael, the city's Chamber of Commerce is recommending other members to switch to the Yule schedule Dec. 4 or 11.

On Saturdays through Dec. 23, Macy's and Penney's in downtown San Rafael say they will stay open until 9 p.m. but the chamber is leaving late closing optional to other merchants.

In the Northgate Shopping Center, the stores will stay open half an hour later. The Emporium and the City of Paris are setting the pace, opening Mondays through Saturdays until 9:30 p.m.

FOLLOWING SUIT

Stores are following suit, however, will switch their lights off Saturdays at 5:30 p.m. until the shopping spree gets really hectic on the final two weekends, Dec. 16 and 23.

Town and Country Village at Strawberry will be in business until 9 p.m. Monday through Friday. Although stores can close anytime after 6 p.m. Saturday, it is expected some will stay open a couple of hours later. About 80 per cent of the stores will be open on Sundays until Christmas.

A poll of downtown businesses in Mill Valley indicates some will start staying open until 9 p.m. this weekend while others will wait until Dec. 8 before changing over.

The city's Chamber of Commerce says that by Dec. 15 almost all major stores will keep their doors open to catch the trade of the night people. On Saturdays, the closing time will be 5:30 p.m.

Novato Chamber of Commerce is recommending its members to make Dec. 11 the starting date for staying open until 9 p.m. but neighborhood shopping centers have already—or intend to — jump the gun.

Stores in Nave Shopping Center are already open until 9 p.m. weeknights and 6 p.m. Saturdays. Novato Fair is scheduling its Christmas season kickoff this weekend.

In Corte Madera Shopping Center, stores are open until 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday until Dec. 23.

Vacant House Called Nuisance

Marin County moved today to raze a vacant, dilapidated home in San Geronimo as a public nuisance.

At the request of the county counsel's office and county housing inspector Richard L. Larson, the board of supervisors asked the owner to appear before the supervisors at 3 p.m. Dec. 19 to show cause why the building should not be condemned.

Unless the owner acts to correct the nuisance, the county intends to raze the structure and charge the owner for the cost.

Merger Of Marin Chamber, Visitors Bureau Is Assured

Merger of Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Marin Visitors Bureau has been assured, Carroll A. Snyker, chamber manager, said yesterday.

Of the 200 ballots mailed last week to chamber members, 75 per cent of them have been returned without a single "no" vote, he explained.

Incorporation papers are now being drawn up by attorney Richard V. Bettini of San Rafael and will soon be filed in Sacramento, Snyker said.

The chamber and bureau used to maintain side-by-side offices at 824 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and the merger will bring them into one office where two services will be performed — encouraging tourism for Marin and answering inquiries about the county.

The visitors' bureau has not been in operation for over a month and has been referring inquiries to the chamber office.

Under the merger Richard Nave, now president of the chamber, will be president and Donald Helbig, president of the visitors bureau, will be first vice president. A new board of 18 directors chosen from members of the boards of the two groups will be selected.

Main advantage of the merger, Helbig said, will be cutting the cost of operation. The two groups have been given $30,000 for fiscal 1967-68 by the county supervisors which was to have been split four-sevenths for the chambers and three-sevenths for the bureau.

In addition, the visitors bureau in the past received donations from individuals and businesses which Helbig estimated at between $1,000 and $1,500 a year. Chamber funds amounting to $6,000 to $8,000 a year have come mainly from business organizations such as bank clearing houses, real estate boards and large individual firms.

Marinite Treated For Face Dog Bites

William M. Horan, 49, of 102 Martens Boulevard, San Rafael, was treated in Marin General Hospital last night for dog bites to the face, police said today.

He said he was opening his garage door when the dog charged, cutting a lip and damaging two teeth. Horan said he thought he could identify the dog but police were told there were several of the same breed, German shepherd, in the area.

Information Board Session Is Held Legal

The San Rafael Board of Education last night defended a breakfast meeting Monday of two members with Supt. John F. Plank to review agenda items.

The Independent-Journal reported yesterday that the meeting was a breach of a 1965 ruling by the state Attorney General's office that such meetings come under the Brown Act.

The Brown Act restricts local governing bodies from meeting privately other than to hire, fire or hear charges against an employee.

SESSION PROPER

Board President Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. said that Asst. County Counsel Richard Godino indicated that such a meeting "was proper and not in violation of the Brown Act or the intent of the Brown Act."

Board member Carl J. Brown suggested that the board get a written opinion on the legality of such sessions from the attorney general, and other members agreed.

"The I-J has concern over the Brown Act, and we have concern, and checked the county counsel," Kramer said. The board is concerned "with being open and above board," he said.

Board member Herman L. Childress, who met with Kramer and Plank Monday at the Courthouse Creamery in San Rafael, said, "If the intent had been to break the law, I don't think it would have been done publicly."

MEMBER STATUS

Childress said he felt that he, as a board member, should have the same opportunity as a citizen to talk to the superintendent or staff members to get information about board meetings and "ask about the operation of the school system."

Board member John C. Pfeiffer said he thought it was ridiculous for the I-J "to be looking under the bed for violations" of the Brown Act.

Childress said the "implication was that it's illegal to speak to a staff member out of a a board meeting, relative to getting information."

'QUITE COMMON'

Kramer contended that it is "quite common for the president of a board or agency to meet the secretary or executive officer to go over the agenda."

He said that "some planning must be done in advance by some officer and the chief of operations. I can't find it in my heart to be apologetic."

Kramer said the meeting was held at his suggestion and he felt it "was in the best interests of the district."

11 Inducted For November Draft Quota

Eleven Marin County youths were inducted into the armed services to fill the November quota of the county draft board, according to Mrs. Joy M. Kinzer, executive secretary of the board.

They were drafted from among the 34 Marin men who reported this month to the Oakland Induction Center.

None of the draftees was married as of Aug. 26, 1965, Mrs. Kinzer said.

Two of the inductees are from San Francisco but had registered with the Marin board previously.

Walter T. Becker, Vance B. Becker, Paul D. Duncan, Michael J. Hammel and Barry M. Janiss, Novato; James H. Barnes and Edwin W. Smith, Mill Valley; Edward P. Gallagher and Damon R. Pennington, San Francisco; Kenneth R. Shine, Tiburon, and Walter W. Derr III, San Rafael.

Thirteen men from Marin County will be ordered for induction on Dec. 14 as the December quota from the county, Mrs. Kinzer said.

Girl Being Held In Burglary Case

Police yesterday arrested a 20-year-old San Rafael girl on a warrant from Portland, Ore., alleging burglary of a large amount of clothing, typewriters and other items.

Sandra Weber of 11 B Taylor Street was being held today in Marin County Jail on $3,000 bail awaiting extradition.

According to San Rafael police, the girl's husband, Robert S. Weber, is also wanted in connection with the burglary but is at present held in San Francisco jail.

Once Controversial Teacher Hired

San Rafael Board of Education last night confirmed the appointment of Mrs. Virginia Franklin, one-time controversial teacher in Butte County, as a part-time social studies teacher at San Rafael High School.

Board members acted after a 10-minute closed session on the hiring requested by board member Carl J. Brown who said, "I've got a couple of questions."

APPROVAL MOTION

When the board reconvened in open session Brown moved to approve the appointment made Nov. 20 and the vote was unanimous. Board member Paul L. Jones was absent.

Mrs. Franklin, winner of a Freedoms Foundation Americanism award at the same time she was being accused of being subversive, left Paradise High School in Butte County two years ago.

WINS JUDGEMENT

Subsequently whe won a $9,000 judgment against American Legion Post 259 of Paradise, which charged that she used subversive material in her class, and a $6,500 judgment against Mrs. Alice Blount of Long Beach, a former Paradise resident, who called her a communist.

She was hired for the remainder of the school year at a salary of $4,499.

Although Mrs. Franklin won her libel and slander suit and the ruling judge commented favorable on the caliber of her teaching, she has had trouble finding a job.

Mrs. Franklin has been teaching three periods of social science each day since Nov. 20 to fill a vacancy that occured when another teacher, Morse Byers, was relieved from that part of his teaching load to conduct a follow-up study of graduates.

DIFFICULT SEARCH

Supt. John F. Plank said the district "had some difficulty obtaining a qualified teacher" for the job, and he recommended appointment of Mrs. Franklin.

Mrs. Franklin, 44, has 15 years teaching experience, including 11th grade history in Napa, one year; all subjects in eighth grade, Chico, three years; and 12th grade government at Paradise High School, 11 years.

The only opposition from the audience came after the action had been taken from a man who said he was surprised that the San Rafael board would accept Mrs. Franklin after she had been turned down in other attempts to get a job.

MANY REFUSALS

Mrs. Franklin had declared in court that she had been turned down in 62 attempts to get teaching posts since leaving Paradise High.

Board President Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. explained that the board went "out of its way" to provide opportunity for comment, and "I don't believe at this time we're going back" to the appointments.

Mill Valley Firemen Plan 72nd Dance

The Walt Tolleson Orchestra will play at the 72nd annual dance of the Mill Valley Association of Volunteer Firemen Saturday at the Mill Valley Community Center.

The dance, a fund-raiser for the volunteer firemen, will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tickets will be available at the door or at the Mill Valley Fire Station during the week.

Homestead Takes Districts View

The Homestead Valley Sanitary District board Monday night took a position favoring establishment of sanitaton districts under Marin County government, rather than placing sewage treatment under administration of Marin Municipal Water District and North Marin Water District.

The alternatives were presented in a Marin County sewage report recently completed by Brown and Caldwell.

Pay Phone Thefts

San Rafael police today reported the theft of pay telephones from two locations, an office block at 711 D Street and a warehouse at 626 Lindaro Street. In both cases, the phones were pried from the wall.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Let's Not Seek More Unenforceable Laws

The cigarette, which has been taking its knocks from everybody from the U.S. surgeon general to the pot-smoking hippies, would be outlawed from public places under a proposal aired last weekend in Marin.

Dr. Gerald E. Hill, who heads the Marin County Inter-agency Council on Smoking and Health, made the proposal at a drug abuse conference at the Civic Center.

Dr. Hill has done a tremendous job in educating Marin youngsters about the dangers of cigarette smoking. Two films on the subject, produced by the Marin Medical Society and aimed at high school and elementary school children, were his projects. He has spoken widely on the dangers of the cigarette. And it is not his fault if, as he said at the conference, some teachers sabotage the instruction because they won't give up smoking themselves.

WE AGREE with Dr. Hill that smoking in public halls, on board buses, etc., fouls the atmosphere and constitutes an affront to non-smokers. But to ban smoking from all public places does not sound feasible.

Dr. Hill agreed with the hippies' contention that it is hypocrisy to outlaw marijuana while doing nothing about tobacco smoking. Scientific research has proved the dangers of the latter. The dangers of smoking marijuana have been accepted from observable reactions, without scientific investigation. The same research that has gone into cigarettes should be applied to marijuana; then its dangers — whatever they are — would be established.

They might, incidentally, prove to be far greater than the potential heart damage and lung cancer linked to cigarettes. It is perhaps not mere chance that the ancient Persian cult of assassins had its members smoke hashish (close cousin of marijuana) so they would kill for pay without remorse.

In the meantime, however, all sorts of bans on cigarettes might merely raise the same resentment as the ban on marijuana. One contention of the "legalize pot" advocates is that there would be less attraction to teen-agers if the stuff were not forbidden.

OUTLAWING CIGARETTES has been tried before. Like Prohibition, it failed.

About 45 years ago, the State of Utah made cigarettes illegal. The agitation for this came from the Mormon (Latter-day Saints) Church, which regards all tobacco use as contrary to the advice of the Lord in the "Word of Wisdom" he revealed to Prophet Joseph Smith. At church meetings, bishops and other church officials asked all in the assembly who were opposed to outlawing cigarettes to stand. Hardly any good Mormon dared stand. So the church reported 100 per cent support for a law against cigarettes, and the legislature passed it.

Evasion and downright contempt for the prohibition of alcoholic beverages was nothing compared to the evasion and downright contempt for the anti-cigarette law in predominantly Mormon Utah. Within about six months, the legislature was called into special session to repeal the law.

IT IS INTERESTING that zealots for any cause believe a law can work for their pet crusade although a similar law does not work for others.

We hope Dr. Hill is right in his prediction that within 15 years, "smoking will be an anti-social activity."

We would like to see more "no smoking" signs in public buildings.

But let's not vitiate what Dr. Hill and others are accomplishing with education by starting a campaign for more unenforceable laws.

Death, Rebirth

"The wine of life keeps oozing; drop by drop; the leaves of life keep falling, one by one." So sends one quatrain of Fitzgerald's translation of Omar Khayyam. The analogy of falling leaves and death is a good one.

But this is only part of the story of falling leaves. In places where the forest is natural, such as Taylor Park, falling leaves gather on the forest floor. Then they are soaked by the rains; they mold and decay.

Thus falling leaves become leaf mold on the forest floor. They become the perfect fertilizer, giving life to tree and shrub, flower and mushroom. In this sense, falling leaves are symbolic of the entire cycle of life, not just its end.

Marijuana Study Proves Its Dangers

Editor, Independent Journal:

Despite the fact that the American Medical Association has on several occasions reiterated its policy against legal use of marijuana with many excellent reasons including the absence of long term studies on the drug, many unqualified persons set themselves up as authorities condoning the use of same. The rationalization by uninformed persons that marijuana is less harmbul than alcohol is misleading and when examined on a broader basis is not in accordance with facts. According to a published study by the World Health Organization ealier this year: "Not more than one to three per cent of drinkers become alcoholics, whereas 20 per cent of marijuana users become addicted to other narcotics." Futhermore, the prospects of recovery from alcoholism are far greater than from drugs of addiction, whose user may well finish up as a human wreckage.

The misguided proponent of the use of marijuana does not take into account the documented evidence of antisocial behavior which is a factor leading to crime. An article published by World Health Organization in July of this year gives examples of crimes known to have been committed under the influence of the drug; these include: the killing of an entire family by a youth of 16; the rape of two schoolgirls by a gang of boys; the shooting of a complete stranger on the highway, and the suicide of an man following the shooting of his wife's grandmother.

Another rationalization one hears is the absence of dependence on marijuana; this again is not in accordance with fact. Documented medical evidence indicates that there is strong psychic dependence on the drug. Such dependence provides the exaggerated confidence which leads the the aggressive urge to commit violent crimes, and may be a serious factor in provoking accidents among drivers and other machine operators.

Persons who may be influential on youngsters are doing them a great disservice by extolling the nonexisting virtues of marijuana; futhermore, persons who illegally engage in the practice of marijuana use, and set themselves up as authorities on this drug are misguided and uninformed.

Why Not Vote For Bridge Directors?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Why are the directors of the Golden Gate Bridge not voted into office by the electorate of the bridge district?

It could be this would put a stop to the useless expenditures of Bridge funds for investigation, banquets, entertainment, etc.

On second thought, the bridge has funds, why not pay off the bonds and put an end to this political gravy train?

ARTHUR GREEN
San Rafael

(Editor's note: The terms under which the bonds to build the bridge were sold do not permit their retirement until 1971. It is possible the district's funds, to the amount required to pay off the bonds, could be placed in a trust account and the district dissolved, with the bridge turned over to the state, before that time. This, however, would require special legislation.)

White House Blocking Ban On Egyptian Cotton

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — A tense tug-of-war is going on behind the scenes in the Senate over the recently passed House bill to put an end to large-scale dumping in the U. S. of Egyptian extra-long staple cotton — which has netted Nasser more than $200 million since 1959.

As in the long House struggle over this legislation, the State Department, with White House support, is strenuously trying to block consideration. When the House finally did vote, the measure was overwhelmingly approved 274 to 64.

It is certain of similar decisive passage in the Senate — if and when the bill can be brought up there.

That's very doubtful at this late date in the session.

LEADING THE backstage drive for consideration is Sen. Joseph Montoya, D-N.M., a sponsor of the legislation and member of the agriculture subcommittee to which it was referred.

Among bipartisan supporters of the bill there is strong suspicion the Johnson Administration finally permitted the House to act on it in the belief that with less than a month remaining of this session, the measure could be bottled up in the Senate.

Overt stalling has characterized the administration's strategy throughout on this legislation.

It was approved by the House Agriculture Committee 22 to 2 in June, and shortly thereafter the Rules Committee unanimously authorized its consideration by the full House; but the bill was pigeonholed by Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., at the secret behest of the administration. It remained shelved for five months until, a few weeks ago, the ban was abruptly lifted and the House was allowed to vote on the issue — which it did speedily and sweepingly.

That the administration is pursuing the same delaying tactics in the Senate is indicated by inside reports that State Department officials are pressuring senators to hold up action on the measure.

THREE OTHER ARAB countries that broke diplomatic relations with the U. S., on the now admittedly false charge that the U. S. aided Israel in its meteoric victory, are finding this no obstacle to continuing their lucrative trade here.

In the three months following the break, Algeria, Iraq and Syria (on the basis of latest available official figures) shipped a total of $13.8 million in various products to this country. This is a decline from the same period last year, when these imports exceeded $20 million.

Trading since the Arabs served official ties has not been wholly one way — although the balance has been heavily in their favor.

Between June and September the U. S. sold them a total of $3.6 million — chiefly auto and radio parts and accessories: Algeria $800,000; Iraq, $2.7 million; Syria, $140,000.

Curiously, in August the Commerce Department issued export licenses for the shipment of 163,000 pounds of explosives and blasting caps to Egypt, worth $97,000, and $9,000 of ammunition for "hunting and sport" to Syria.

Moscow Drops Derision To Join American Investigation Of UFOs

WASHINGTON — Two new and significant developments bear directly on the puzzle of UFOs, whether they are real or whether they can be explained away as natural phenomena:

1 — The Soviet Union has about-faced on flying saucers. After long dismissing them as "fairy tales" and an "American hoax," it has created a government commission to investigate the many sightings over Russian territory and to find out what they are.

2 — The special team of American scientists, headed by Dr. Edward U. Condon of the University of Colorado under contract with the Pentagon to investigate UFOs, is aiming to pool both information and techniques with the Soviets.

The head of the new Soviet commission, retired Air Force Gen. Porfifi A. Stolyarov, will be invited to the U.S. as a guest of the American group and offered access to everything on the UFOs the U.S. scientists have gathered. Dr. Condon and his project manager, Robert J. Low, would like to develop a full exchange of data and a close working relationship with the Soviet investigators.

THIS RADICAL switch in the Soviet approach to the question of "flying plates," as Moscow calls them, gives new support to those in the U.S. and elsewhere who are convinced that the sightings of recent years prove that things are appearing which are not mythical, not illusion. At the very least the new Soviet view strengthens those who believe that the evidence demands continued study, that there is far too much which is unexplained to be dismissed.

Actually, over the past two decades the official Soviet position has been far more skeptical and derisive than that of the U.S. Air Force, which, until the contract with Dr. Condon, was the official center of investigation and which seemed to many to be intent upon dismissing the evidence.

FOR MANY YEARS despite the sightings of unexplained objects in many parts of the world, the Soviets never allowed their press to publish any such reports. As recently as 1961 Pravda jeered at all UFO reports as "absurd rumors" and "optical illusions" and suggested that the U.S. was getting into a "state of mass hysteria" through "delusion" and "deliberate lying."

In creating a government commission to study the report sightings, they are now saying almost exactly the same things which objective scientists have been saying in the U.S. for some time. They do not reject the possibility that all UFOs can still be explained away, but they warn against such outright dismissal, arguing that it is "too convenient since it demands no intellectual effort and kills off the problem at birth."

One member of the Russian commission said he believes "UFOs should be studied carefully" and "approached scientifically."

THE FIRST ARTICLE in any Russian publication discussed UFOs seriously appeared only this year. Apparently it was paving the way to announcing the official investigation commission. It is now admitted that Russian radar screens have been detecting unidentified objects since 1947 when sightings began to be reported over the U.S.

The National Investigations Commission on Aerial Phenomena in Washington, D.C., has information on 17 reported sightings of UFOs over Russia in recent years, and earlier this year, before the Stolyarov commission was named, a "crescent-shaped object" was seen by tourists over the Black Sea resort of Sochi.

Surely neither the war in Vietnam nor the breach between Peking and Moscow should prevent the United States and the Soviet Union from investigating UFOs jointly and scientifically.

Russia's Troika Finds Keeping Equal Not Easy

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Two important meetings scheduled by the Soviet leadership for after the new year may provide guidelines both as to the future courses of Russian policy and whether a split within the Kremlin is pointing more and more toward a return of one-man rule.

BREZHNEV, KOSYGIN and President Nicolai Podgorny are the men who have been at the top of the Soviet Union's committee of troika government since the 1964 ouster of Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

But as the Soviet Union observed its 50th anniversary on Nov. 7 it also was observed that important decisions were being put off.

And among equals, it also appeared that Brezhnev gradually was emerging as more equal than the other two.

ASIDE FROM its obvious early indecision during the Mideast crisis, there were other outstanding problems to be met. One involved the future of Russian agriculture, another final approval of the 1966-1970 five-year plan which now should be rounding out its second year but actually has been operating on a year-to-year basis.

ON THE PURELY political front Brezhnev could be expected to take the lead.

Despite the opposition, it appears he has decided this is the time to reassert Russian world leadership of the Communist party through a world summit meeting. Presumably this will include a denunciation of the divisive policies of Red China.

Two and a half years ago it also was Brezhnev who promoted an outlay of $45.5 billion to modernize Russian agriculture.

These funds now have been cut by one-fourth for the benefit of a large expansion in production of consumer goods and other areas of the Soviet economy. A promoter of the cut was Premier Kosygin.

Racing Monopoly—How It Grows

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A meeting of the California Horse Racing Board slated in San Francisco tomorrow is expected to do much toward determining whether racing in this state becomes a monopolistic business with the powerful Hollywood Turf Club calling the shots.

Already the board has allocated additional racing days to the Tanforan Racing Association for a meet next year during the traditional time for racing at the California State Fair and Exposition. It has denied additional days to the fair, which were sought to assist in paying off obligations for construction of the new exhibition quarters.

However, another attempt will be made by Gen. Andrew Lolli, state director of general services, to get the board to grant dates for the exposition meet and meets at several district and county fairs.

HOW RACING in Northern California is fast approaching the monopolistic stage is seen in the complicated situation with regard to control of the sport, and how the horse racing board, by granting the additional racing days to Tanforan, is playing into the hands of the racing magnates.

Already, Bay Area Sports Enterprises controls the Bay Meadows track, stock of the Tanforan Racing Association, and Pacific Racing Association (Golden Gate Fields) has been incorporated into the Bay Area Sports organization.

Latest move in the gigantic racing combine is approval of the stockholders of Bay Area Sports to combine their stock with the Hollywood Turf Club. Approval of this combine is before the state corporation commissioner.

THE PEOPLE of California approved legalized gambling on thoroughbred racing to promote the welfare of the horse-breeding business; or at least, that was the theory on which the constitutional amendment was sold.

But many small breeders contend they could be frozen out by establishment of monopoly, in that it could dictate to the industry itself, especially if racing at fairs and expositions is down-graded because the monopoly has the greater share of the racing days allowed by the Legislature.

Before the special session of the Legislature adjourns, it may act on a resolution calling for an extensive probe of California racing, including the threatened monopoly, and the connection with it of the Calfiornia Horse Racing Board.

Japanese Most Uncooperative People --Insist On Remembering Pearl Harbor

I had occasion to visit Japan last week, and I am happy to report that Japanese-American relations have never been better. When Premier Sato was leaving to visit the United States, Tokyo University students tried to stop him from going by demonstrating at the airport. It wasn't that they had anything against Sato's visit to the United States. They just love their premier so much, they just couldn't stand to say goodbye.

The big issue in Japan vis-a-vis the United States is Okinawa. The Japanese would like the U. S. to return Okinawa to them after all these years. The United States is willing to do it only if Japan will take South Vietnam at the same time in a package deal. But the Japanese are reluctant to take the U. S. up on it. As one Japanese diplomat put it: "We'd rather commit Hara-Kiri first."

ANOTHER SORE POINT of Japanese-American relations is that the United States wants Japan to pay more of its own money for its defense and also to do more to rearm for the future.

He said, "Japanese no want to rearm!"

"Why not?" I asked him.

"We remember Pearl Harbor."

"Ah-so. You crazy or something?" he said. "We promised Gen. MacArthur we would be peace-loving people. In 1945 we vowed death to the imperialist military clique and a plague on all war."

"BUT THE PROMISE MacArthur exacted from you in 1945 is one thing, and what we want you to do now is another. Aren't you worried about the yellow peril at all?"

"Oh, that yellow peril. Frankly, that's not our problem. The United States taught us that anybody that goes to war is crazy. Take a look at Hiroshima and Nagasaki if you don't believe me."

"BUT THAT WAS a bad war."

"Why was it a bad war?" he asked.

"Because you were the enemy. Now that you're our allies we have no objection to your building up a strong military complex to defend yourselves. There are good wars and bad wars. If you were on our side, you'd be involved in a good war."

"No thank you, venerable taxi rider. Imperial military clique got us into too much trouble last time. Besides, how do you know that if we rearm and get strong militarily we won't bomb Pearl Harbor again?"

"You'd have to promise not to."

"We did the last time, but that didn't stop us from doing it."

"IF THERE'S ANYTHING I hate," I said angrily, "it's a Japanese Dove."

"So sorry, honorable American, but the only thing Japanese people learned from World War II is that there is more money to be made in cameras."

"But how are you going to contain China with cameras?"

"That's your problem. After all, you won World War II, so you have to take care of us."

"Well, if you want to know the truth," I said, "I'm sorry we beat you in World War II."

"You should have thought of that before."

Visitor Learns About MMWD, And Teaches A Bit About Ghana

Henry Adu-poku of Ghana came to learn more about water treatment at the Marin Municipal Water District.

"I like working here because there are things still growing," said Adu-poku when I talked with him just before he left Marin last week. "Some places I have visited things are completely set up and there is not much to learn."

An engineer for the Ghana Water and Sewage Corp., 29-year-old Adu-poku was chosen for a one-year scholarship in the U. S., sponsored by the Agency for International Development. He received his engineering degree from the University of Science and Technology at Kumasi, Ghana.

I expected to hear him say there are many startling differences between the two countries. Surprisingly, he told me that some of the materials and systems in water treatment were similar to those in Africa, and that our northern California climate is like that of northwest Africa.

ONE DIFFERENCE he did notice is in our food. Plentiful in Ghana are yams, rice, plantain (a type of banana) and maize (corn). Ghanians eat fresh corn from the cob, as we do, or grind it into cornmeal for "porridge," Adu-poku told me with his clipped British accent.

Another popular cornmeal dish in Ghana is "kenkey," cornmeal dough wrapped in leaves and steamed. Beef and mutton are the principal meats. People who live near the sea or the man-made lake, Volta, however, eat lots of fish.

Ghana exports 75 per cent of the world's cocoa, Adu-poku said. The little country, on the Gold Coast of Africa, also exports lumber (particularly hardwoods, such as mahogany), gold and diamonds.

Adu-poku said proudly that Ghana, an independent country, was one of the first to gain its independence from British rule.

IN HIS HOME CITY, Accra, the capital of Ghana, the water district serves 40,000 customers and combines sewage treatment and water supply — actually a step ahead of Marin.

English is the official language in Ghana, I learned, although five main African dialects are still used.

General Mgr. William R. Seeger said he found Henry Adu-poku an apt pupil. Adu-poku said he felt he could now go home and start his own water district if he had to.

Among his hobbies is an African game called "draught." As he explained it, it is a marble game similar to Chinese checkers but played on a chess-like board.

Adu-poku enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner in the home of one of his new friends from the water district. Then he left last week end for a water conference in Newport Beach, from where he will go to Texas for his next training stop.

$65,000. A normal seller not pressured by "disaster" offered his Idylewood Road home for sale at his first price of $75,000. He admits he was too high. At $69,500 we had some interest but no offers, so he reduced it to $65,000 which is embarrassingly close to the Assessor's figure. He had it built in 1957 and it shows its age in spots but the 3 bedrooms are large with good-built-in cabinetry. The den is almost too big to be called cozy and, naturally, it has a big dining room. With a choice of lots 10 years ago, he got a good one of over an acre. The home is nothing super or sensational, it's just a comfortable well planned and well built residence offered at a price which is very simple to justify by an owner who wants to move to his ranch. Please call us till 8 p.m. at our Kentfield office, 461-2900.

Los Ranchitos

A SENSE OF WONDER
engulfs you when confronted with the vistas from this house which boasts THE most outstanding site in Los Ranchitos. More than an acre and a half of privacy, level lawns, magnificent old oaks and very possibly the best view of the Civic Center in the bay area surrounds a traditional 3 bedroom, 2 bath ranch with warm paneling in most rooms, and large unfinished areas for additional bedrooms, baths, playroom, or you name it.

Fully equipped with power steering, power brakes, power windows, custom interior, custom chrome wheels and a brand new set of white wall tires which we just installed and was the only thing we had to do to this car to put it on the lot.

Sold new for over $5700 but we'll sell for only $4250.

Three Sail Disabled Ship Into Port

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three British sailors happily landed at Fisherman's Wharf yesterday, 17 long days after the steering gear snapped on the 43-foot ketch Jonbru in a gale 700 miles off San Francisco.

"We were bloody miserable," said Simon Pym, one of the Jonbru's crew.

Bruce Henly, 43, the Jonbru's skipper from Seatown on the South English coast, finally patched up the steering cables a third time and managed to ease the 29-ton vessel into San Francisco.

Henly said the Jonbru was only about seven days out of Victoria when the northerly gale blew her all the way back to San Francisco.

More Time Given For Prison Escapes

Two San Quentin inmates were sentenced to prison terms of six months to five years by Marin Superior Judge Joseph G. Wilson yesterday for their May 1 escape from the prison.

Sentenced were Donald P. Alvarado, 34, and Walter Glenn Castro, 35, who walked away from minimum security barracks outside prison walls. They were captured in Oakland after 12 days of freedom.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

The Ballet Dancer Must Always Be Cautious—Injuries Common

VAN DELLEN

So much is written about football and skiing accidents that it was refreshing to learn that ballet injuries also are a problem. The most common ballet disabilities are muscle, tendon, and minor ligament strains.

As in other sports, the neophyte's injuries are less severe than those of the professional artist.

FEW DANCERS have a perfect physique and minor deviations must be overcome by strengthening the muscles through a rigid training program.

They learn to compensate for physical defects but these imperfections are never overcome and remain a potential hazard, especially when fatigue sets in.

The highly arched foot, for example, leaves the forefoot soft and flexible. But beautiful as it may be, this type of foot will not take so much abuse as one with a less pronounced arch that is sturdier and more closely knit.

HIGHLY ARCHED feet also have weaker sole muscles which are used when the shape of the foot is altered — such as in springing or standing on the toes (pointe).

All ballerinas spend hours at the barre. When standing, the weight of the body is borne on the heads of the first and fifth metatarsals in front and the heel.

During rolling, the foot and ankle are easily strained leading to pain along the inner border of the foot and extending up the back of the leg.

When on pointe, the ankle is not protected by muscles and if the foot "sickles" out, the body weight is diverted to the inner side of the foot causing marked stretching of ligaments and muscles that do not have the power to maintain the arch. Sickling-in affects the outer aspect.

OLDER and professional dancers may have strained the ligaments so often that scar tissue develops leading to a painful narrowing of the surrounding sheath. Other ballet injuries occur but in order to treat them properly, the physician must know something about the different ballet techniques.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

PRESSURE AND ARTERIES

B. M. writes: Is it possible for a person with normal blood pressure to develop hardening of the coronary arteries?

REPLY

Yes. Arteriosclerosis is aggravated but not caused by high blood pressure. On the other hand, hypertension is one of the high risk factors in coronary thrombosis and increases the risk of a heart attack.

EQUALIZING SHORT LEG

A reader writes: Has it definitely been established that an adult with back trouble is helped by having a lift put on his shie? The physician informed him that one leg is shorter than the other.

REPLY

MANY CAUSES OF RASH

Mrs. J. B. writes: Could drinking cause an itchy rash on my husband's face?

REPLY

Yes, and so can a thousand other things. Something in the drink can be blamed if the rash develops only after he nips a bit.

COFFEE AND SLEEP

Mrs. L. S. writes: If a person drinks a lot of coffee during the day is he a restless sleeper at night?

REPLY

Coffee affects everyone in a different way, but most of us develop insomnia if we consume too much.

CARDIAC CONVALESCENT

P. G. writes: Can a man convalescing from a heart attack have his morning coffee?

REPLY

Yes, if the beverage doesn't make him restless or increase the pulse rate.

BLOOD PRESSURE AND COLD

R. C. Y. writes: Could low blood pressure make a person supersensitive to cold and drafts?

REPLY

A relationship may exist in that many individuals with low blood pressure also have a subnormal metabolic rate and little endurance.

EPILEPSY CAUSE

Mrs. M. writes: Is epilepsy the result of an injury to the brain?

REPLY

Yes, but this is not a common cause of the disease.

ACID MAKERS

REPLY

FREECING ULCER

A. R. writes: Is the freezing technic for peptic ulcer as popular as it was a few years ago?

REPLY

No, this form of treatment is not so effective as reported originally. Furthermore, complications occurred that made the treatment worse than the disease.

Trio Is Barred From Seashore

A Berkeley couple and their friend from Concord were fined $10 and barred from using Point Reyes National Seashore park for six months Monday by U. S. Commissioner Richard Goldsmith in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fay Tulloch of Berkeley and Roland Lang of Concord had defied rangers who told them they could not camp at McClure's Beach on Nov. 4, according to Gordon Patterson, chief ranger at the park.

After the group refused to leave the area and spent the night, rangers gave them a violation notice. Patterson noted that the only camping allowed in the park is back pack camping in three locations.

Board Of Education Views Over-Ride Tax

The San Rafael Board of Education last night discussed an over-ride tax rate of 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation to bring school buildings up to the state's earthquake resistance standards. (Other stories, page 25.)

Asst. County Counsel Richard Godino told board members that law permits the tax to be levied until 1970 to undertake the necessary projects.

Supt. John F. Plank said this would include replacement of Short School and repairs at the San Rafael High School gymnasium and Laurel Dell Primary School.

If the over-ride tax will cover the estimated expense, the board can levy it without an election, Godino said. However, if the expected revenue doesn't cover the expenditures, then the board will have to call an election. At such an election, the board would have to offer the voters three choices, a bond issue, excess taxes or "the use of tents," he said.

Board members asked Supt. John F. Plank to determine if a 10 cent boost in the tax rate would meet the need.

Board member Herman L. Childress asked if the board legally could move students back into Short School, which is no longer used for classes.

Godino said, "You could use it legally."

Board members agreed that since it has been declared unsafe after an engineering survey, they wouldn't send pupils back into the school.

Hospital Staffer Reports Critical Financial Strain

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A critical financial strain has developed at San Francisco General Hospital, staff members say.

Dr. Lloyd Etherington told the Board of Supervisors Health Committee yesterday that when Patrolman Herman George, shot and seriously wounded recently, was brought to the hospital, no sterile syringe to treat his injuries could be found for nearly two hours.

He also said only one request out of three for surgical supplies is filled.

The hospital's paging system, intended to communicate with doctors, is as often used to call for supplies, he reported, saying calls go like this: "If anybody has an electrocardiograph, please call the operator." "If anybody has a heating pad, please call the operator.

Episcopal Clergy Takes New Look At Homosexuals

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ninety Episcopalian priests are generally agreed that all homosexual acts should not be considered wrong, and that in some instances such acts may be beneficial.

There was some sentiment toward legalizing homosexuality but other priests maintained homosexual acts must always be regarded as perversion.

The clergymen participated yesterday in Project H, a day long symposium on the church's approach to homosexuality.

A large majority of the priests agreed that all homosexual acts should not be condemned "per se" but each instance should be judged individually.

Drysdale Is Last Of Old Dodger Team

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Minnesota has grabbed a No. 1 catcher in John Roseboro and bullpen strength in Ron Perranoski and Bob Miller in a major player deal that gave the Los Angeles Dodgers a former most valuable player and regular shortstop in Zoilo Versalles and an ex-21-game winner in Mudcat Grant.

The five-players swap last night was so startling to the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, arriving for a player representatives meeting, that he asked a reporter to repeat it several times before he would believe the news.

RELIEF CORPS

Minnesota thinks it has solidified its bid for the 1968 American League pennant by bolstering its relief pitching with a proven lefty-righty combination in 30-year-old Perranoski and 28-year-old Miller.

Hurting for a top receiver after the retirement of Earl Battey, the Twins believe they have found the man for at least one year in 34-year-old Roseboro, who hit .273 last season. Perranoski was 6-7 and Miller 2-9 for the Dodgers in 1967.

The Dodgers, desperate for a shortstop after trading Maury Wills to Pittsburgh a year ago, count on Versalles, most valuable player in the American League in 1965, but a .200 hitter last season, to fill the job that was too much for Gene Michael last season.

BIG MAN

Grant, of course, could be a big man in the starting rotation if the 32-year-old right-hander could come back from a 5-6 year to that 21-7 season in the pennant-winning season of 1965 when he beat the Dodgers twice in the World Series.

The Twins-Dodgers deal overshadowed other action as the trading mart picked up with a Pittsburgh-Detroit swap of relief pitchers Dennis Ribant and Dave Wickersham and a Baltimore-Cleveland deal that sent John O'Donoghue to the Orioles for Eddie Fisher, the 31-year-old knuckleball pitcher.

The Orioles also acquired shortstop Gordon Lund for their Rochester farm and possible utility use while the Cleveland organization got pitcher Bob Scott and outfielder John Scruggs from the Baltimore chain for their Portland farm.

BUSY DAYS

The busy trading day also included the conditional sale of outfielder Sam Bowens by Baltimore to Washington.

Walter Alston, veteran manager of the Dodgers, said, "We needed a shortstop and feel we have come up with a pretty good one who is sound and has proven himself.

"We will have to see a little more of Grant. He pitched good against us in the World Series. If he isn't a starter he will be an early relief man."

Alston said he would have to depend on his young boys—Jim Campanis and Jeff Torborg—as replacements for Roseboro whose trade away left Drysdale as the last of the old Brooklyn Dodgers.

SKIERS DELIGHT: IT'S SNOWING IN SIERRAS

The snow elevation had dropped to 3,000-4,000 feet today, with heavy snow reported falling in the northern Sierras.

Roads leading to the Sierras will be open this weekend, according to the California State Automobile Association, with chains being required on Interstate 80 near Nyak and Donner Lake. Highway 50 is reported icy in spots from Twin Bridges to the Nevada State Line.

JIM GILMARTIN

Here's What Happened In 'Great Grid Goof'

BUCK PASSING — I called up Glenn DuBose yesterday and asked him what in the world happened in junior college football's "Great Goof" last weekend.

Mr. DuBose is athletic dirctor at Napa College and was delegated by the chairman of the California J.C. Athletic Committee to direct the Northern California playoffs. (Mistake number one!) He was given a set of regulations which clearly defined his responsibilities, one of which, underlined, read as follows: "The playoff committee chairman (DuBose) shall appoint an official neutral statistician for each playoff game."

This item was not just put in the regulations for fun. It was put there for the very serious purpose of determining a winner in the event of a tie. The team with the most yardage would be declared the winner, which is a silly solution, but that's their cesspool in which to sink.

Why No Official Statistician?

Anyway, when College of Marin and Hartnell tied last Saturday at Salinas, look, ma, no official neutral statisticain. They had to flip a coin to declare Hartnell the state finalist.

Pray tell, Mr. DuBose, just why wasn't there an official neutral statistician?

"Gee, Gil, I wish I knew," he started off. "I was delegated . . . to take care of the Northern California playoffs. I held a meeting at Menlo with representatives of all the schools that had a chance to get into the playoffs and we went over all the details, item by item.

"It was agreed upon that the host school would contact the visiting team to appoint an official neutral statistician. For the Salinas game, the name of a sportswriter for the San Jose Mercury was mentioned as statistician. I figured he would be neutral because San Jose is a half-way location. I thought that had been settled and left the matter up to the athletic directors involved.

The Man Was 'Terribly Sorry'

"I was terribly sorry that we had to flip a coin to settle the issue. But, as this was the tournament's first year, I think we've been kind of lucky that something worse than that didn't happen."

Ed Adams, Hartnell's athletic director, said he was unable to attend that Menlo meeting and sent his football coach instead.

Later, said Adams, after Hartnell clinched the championship, he asked his coach to explain the California playoff system but the details were vague, " . . . so I called up DuBose and asked him what I was supposed to do. All he said to me was, 'Well, the ball's on your shoulders now! To this minute I haven't been told directly that it was up to me to appoint a statistician. I assumed it had been taken care of."

Adams Wanted Another Playoff

Adams continued: "We didn't feel it was an honorable way to win (flipping the coin) and we told the state chairman that we favored another playoff game with Marin. But they wouldn't go along with it. We've always had the finest association with Marin and I certainly hope this doesn't cause any hard feelings against us. Some of us coaches are going to get together and write up a critique on this tournament with suggestions for improvements."

Meanwhile, back at Kentfield, Marin athletic director Harry Pieper admitted: "No, we didn't want another playoff game. We didn't feel it was right to send our kids through another ball game. Our kids were 'high' for that game and had just played the best ball game of their lives.

"However, let me repeat: Had the state committee directed us tp play another playoff game, we would have gone along with that decision, just like we had to go along with the unfortunate coin-tossing solution."

Pieper Know Nothing Of Meeting

Asked about that meeting in Menlo when all details, item by item, were supposed to have been ironed out, Pieper said: "We heard absolutely nothing of any meeting in Menlo. That statement is absolutely wrong. We were not invited. We certainly were contenders all along and should have been invited, but this is my first knowledge of that meeting. We were one of the first teams to qualify for the tournament on Nov. 4. Hartnell didnt' qualify until Nov. 18. They were there but we weren't. WHY?"

Pieper continued: "Perhaps I was remiss in not checking to see if an official statistician had been appointed. But, Hartnell was running the game and I assumed everything had been taken care of. Anyway, everything was clearly defined in the regulations and everything should have been taken care of. It was a terrible blunder."

Beban Takes News Of Heisman Award In Modest Fashion

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The name of Gary Joseph Beban, quarterback, UCLA, was duly registered today as the 1967 Heisman Memorial Trophy winner, so selected by 1,033 writers and broadcasters as the outstanding college football player of the year.

Beban, a senior, accepted the award in typical Beban fashion. He was pleased, naturally. He was also modest, generous in wishing he could share it with his teammates and he was just as poised about the whole thing as he had been in leading UCLA to national prominence during his three years at Bruinville.

SECOND WINNER

Tommy Prothro, his coach, was equally delighted. It was the second Heisman Trophy winner he has coached. Terry Baker at Oregon State in 1962 was the other.

There was a slight difference in reaction by coach and player. Gary called his folks in Redwood City, his girl friend, unidentified and location not divulged, and his faculty adviser to see how his grades were stacking up. He's a B average student majoring in history.

Prothro from his office at UCLA started to call his wife to tell her the good news. Suddenly he stopped and confessed, "I'm real upset, I can't even remember my own home phone number."

OPPOSITION

Beban won the Heisman over formidable opposition. He polled 369 first place votes for 1,968 points. His closest challengers were halfback O.J. Simpson of the University of Southern California with 261 first place votes and 1,772 points, and Leroy Keyes, Purdue, 278 first and 1,366 points.

College Of Marin To Appeal To State On Grid Decision

The Marin Tars tied a game in their state playoff game with Hartnell College Saturday, 29-29. The following day, a coin was flipped in a motel room to determine the winner in lieu of an official scorer. The scorer, had one been present at the game, would have determined the winner of the tie by computing passing and rushing yardage.

Gerard Sirocky, Editor of the College of Marin Times and member of the Executive Council, said the council's resolution yesterday is to write the State Athletic Committee in Sacramento and the California Junior College Association deploring that there was no official statistician at the game to rightfully determine a winner of the game. The council also will ask that the coin decision be set aside and an official determination be made as to who is the winner, he said.

Sirocky said the inter-club council of College of Marin, a body composed of representatives of all campus clubs, met Monday night and passed a similar resolution. The resolution will be sent to the California Athletic Committee, he said.

Warriors Move Up On Hawks

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Nate Thurmond of the San Francisco Warriors wants to have no such luck as to wind up No. 7 in the National Basketball Association's scoring race.

The early leader this season, Thurmond plunged to seventh when the NBA released its most recent individual scoring statistics and apparently he decided to do something about it.

In the process, he is helping the Warriors prevent the St. Louis Hawks from making it a runaway in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

Thurmond scored 28 points last night as the Warriors beat the Baltimore Bullets 117-110 and moved to within one game of the first-place Hawks, who bowed to the Los Angeles Lakers 134-117.

Reagan Against Negro Boycott Of Olympics

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan doesn't think much of a proposed boycott of the 1968 Olympic Games by Negro athletes.

Speaking at his weekly news conference yesterday, the California governor touched on the boycott when asked to comment on Harry Edwards, the 24-year-old assistant sociology professor of San Jose State, who is leading the movement by Negro athletes.

Reagan was asked specifically if he felt it was a proper role for a state employee.

"No, I don't," he replied.

"Personally, I disapprove greatly of what he's trying to accomplish," added the governor. "I think many young athletes are going to be victimized on an emotional basis and make some decisions they are going to regret for the rest of their lives."

And the governor's Community Relations assistant, Robert J. Keyes, also urged Negro athletes not to boycott the 1968 games.

Keyes, a Negro, told the Rancho Cordova Rotary Club that "athletics is one of the fields which has proven that the Negro athletes are as good as any other race" and has contributed more to the Negro cause than any other field.

Orioles, Sox In Six-Man Trade Deal

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles traded shortstop Luis Aparicio and outfielder Russ Snyder to the Chicago White Sox today for pitcher Bruce Howard and infielder Don Buford in a six-player baseball trade.

The White Sox also sent pitcher Roger Nelson to the Orioles and first baseman-outfielder John Matias moved to Chicago.

Aparicio, who also was sought by the New York Yankees, batted .233 last season, a drop of 43 points from the previous year. He was with the White Sox from 1956 through 1962 before being traded to the Orioes. He is 33 years old.

Howard, 24, won three games and lost 10 for the White Sox in 1967. He also posted a 3-0 mark for Indianapolis of the Pacific Coast League.

Why Did Spurrier Use Basketball Language?

Steve Spurrier played his first full game at pro quarterback Sunday and the 1966 Heisman Trophy winner said, "It's a lot different when you're in a game with a team like the Colts."

The rookie wasn't apologizing for his inability to lead the 49ers to victory. After all, the Colts are undefeated this season and were heavy favorites to hand the 49ers their fifth consecutive loss.

"I learned a lot," said Spurrier who knows better than anyone else that he must learn a lot more before he seriously can be considered as a No. 1 pro quarterback.

THERE IS only one way for Spurrier's knowledge to be enhanced. That's by playing. There's no substitute for experience. Throwing passes through a tire suspended in the backyard may cultivate a degree of accuracy but not the kind required to hit a moving target in face of an enemy blitz.

"When you're a basketball player and you shoot baskets in your backyard, it's a lot different from a game," said Spurrier.

THE ROOKIE made his point but why did he have to do it with an allusion to another sport? Why not the simple example of a backyard tire for passing practice?

Spurrier is a pleasant fellow to talk to. He is confident but not cocky. And he is quite capable of talking about his profession in football language.

It may seem petty to find fault with Spurrier's use of basketball to illustrate a point of football. And, indeed, it would be petty were it not for the fact that others in pro football use such illustrations in cynical fashion.

IN RECENT years pro football has spawned a clique of insufferable cynics who think the vast majority of football fans fail to understand much about the game.

They not only think that way but are saying so in radio and TV interviews. It's a strange way to build customer relations with the ticket buying public.

SPURRIER HASN'T been around long enough to appreciate fully the subtle secondary innuendoes intended by the cynics in their mixed comparisons between football and other sports.

So after he makes his second start at quarterback next Sunday for the 49ers, don't classify him with the cynics even if he should refer to basketball again. Spurrier is an uncomplicated 22-year-old gentleman who hasn't become jaded enough to be a cynic. His only problem is proving his talent to be a No. 1 pro quarterback.

campus, was asked the familiar questions.

"The high points were beating USC and winning the Rose Bowl over Michigan State as a sophomore. Then going 9-1 as a junior. The low points? That's easy. The loss to USC two weeks ago and then to Syracuse last Saturday."

Beban, to no one's surprise, said he is contemplating a professional career. Football, he explained, has been a vital part of his young life. But he sidestepped such matters as preference of a team or league.

"We have no choice. It just depends on who drafts us," he explained and by the plural he referred to all graduating collegians.

Will winning the Heisman Trophy aid him financially? With a wide grin, Beban answered, "I think that that would have to be taken into consideration."

The Heisman award was originated in 1935 in memory of John W. Heisman, former director of athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club of New York, the organization which conducts the poll.

Other than Beban and Baker, only one other West Coast athlete has ever won the trophy—Southern California's Mike Garrett in 1965.

Denver Ace Cracks Scoring Record In Win Over Oaks

HOUSTON (AP) — The Oakland Oaks went down to defeat 126-108 as Denver's Larry Jones smashed the American Basketball Association single game scoring record with 52 points last night.

Oakland, in fourth place with a 9-12 record, takes on Houston tonight.

Jones' scoring surpassed the record of 49 points held by Lavern Tart of Oakland. Tart could only net 26 points as the Rockets claimed their third straight victory for a current 11-10 record in third place in the Western Division.

Oakland helped Jones set his mark by fouling him twice in the final 69 seconds. Coach Bob Bass later said he had instructed the Rockets to feed Jones in the final two minutes after it became clear the scoring record was within his grasp.

Marin Preps Win Three Of Four

Pool Halls Going Modern Leagues Forming In Marin

By RALPH CHATOIAN

A mother of three, Mrs. Posman is throwing her enthusiasm into creation of organized leagues of pool, for players of all ages, men and women.

FACE-LIFTING

And if you haven't been keeping up with this parlor game, we better tell you it is no longer confined to smoke-filled rooms at the "other" end of town. Pool halls, like the old-time bowling "alleys," have been given a complete face-lifting.

There are two of these new-type pool houses in Marin County, one in Kentfield and the other in Sausalito. They are two of eight such establishments that have sprung up in the Bay Area during the past four years, the creation of Alec Liu, who started the first one in San Francisco.

With the woman in mind, these new-look billiard parlors are well-lighted, and dressed up with wall-to-wall carpeting. And it's not an inexpensive proposition, as the pool tables cost $1,200 each.

"Our project is to cater to people who would like to play pool, but would like to get away from the pool hall stmosphere," explains Mrs. Posman.

Shirley, a 4-foot, 11-inch ball of fire, used to do a lot of bowling. That's how she got the idea of organized handicap leagues for pool playing.

"It's really going over," said Shirley about the new leagues. "We've got five leagues and about 45 people in them," she beamed.

She has started leagues of teen-agers, leagues of men, and leagues of women. Ages in the men's leagues range from 21 to 82. Trophies will go to league winners.

MORE COMING

Don de Surville, owner of Kentfield Town and Country Billiards, has two leagues going on and two more that will be started shortly. Winners will get trophies and cue sticks as prizes at the conclusion of league play.

Occupations of the pool players? There's a music teacher, a free lance writer, architects, gas station owner, beauty parlor operator, tow-truck drivers, secretaries, and high school and college students.

"These people are far from expert pool players," says Mrs. Posman. "That's why we devised a handicap system for them. It gives them all a chance to win. We don't want the experts, just people who want to have fun playing pool."

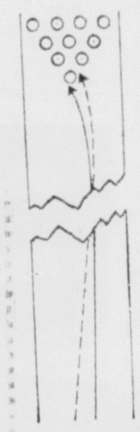
BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER



TWO WAYS TO FIGHT SLOW LANE

When you ball breaks, or curves, too much, you're faced with a slower alley than usual. You can fight this two ways — by moving to the left a board or two so that you bowl at the 1-3 pocket from less of an angle, or by speeding up your delivery.

Seals Hoping For Road Win

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Oakland Seals, winless in three tries against Pittsburgh, try again tonight and hope to also take their first win on the road.

The Seals have lost 5-1 and 1-0 to Pittsburgh and had the Penguins down 2-0 last Saturday only to be a caught for a tie.

Cal, Stanford Cagers Rely On Youngsters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Coaches Rene Herrerias at California and Howie Dallmar at Stanford are counting heavily on instant maturity for their basketball fortunes this season.

Herrerias told Northern California Basketball Writers Monday that six of Cal's first nine men will be sophomores.

Stanford will start only one sophomore, 6-6 Steve Kuchenbecker at center. He could play a decisive role in Stanford's season record, Dallmar said.

Cal has a soph center named Wendell Kallenberger. Kuchenbecker and Kallenberger could give broadcasters a hard time when they oppose each other.

The was no news in the writers picking UCLA to repeat as Pacific-8 Conference champions. Lew Alcindor and his mates have virtually been conceded a second national title.

Washington State was picked as likeliest runnerup. The rest of the conference, the writers said, should finish up with California, Southern California, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and Oregon.

The writers made Santa Clara their choice as probable title winner in the West Coast Athletic Conference. They decided twice - champion University of the Pacific lost too heavily through graduation to remain a favorite.

The finish forecast for the WCAC put University of San Francisco in second place, Pacific third, Loyola fourth, and San Jose State, Pepperdine, UC - Santa Barbara and St. Mary's in the second division.

Cal meets Idaho Saturday after its annual alumni game Friday night. Stanford opens against Portland Friday. Santa Clara hosts San Francisco State Friday night in San Jose Civic Auditorium.

Novato Athlete Wins Hill Run

Novato High School cross country ace Darren Walton finished first in the high school division of the Daly City Hill Run last weekend.

Walton ran the 6.7-mile course in 38:32.

Mill Valley's Ray Menzie of the Marin Athletic Club finished third in the open division in a time of 38:57.

The race was sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department and sanctioned by the Pacific Association of the AAU.

Today is Wednesday, Nov. 29, the 333rd day of 1967 with 32 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and its new phase. The morning stars are Venus and Jupiter. The evening stars are Mars and Saturn.

On this day in history:

A thought for the day—American writer Henry David Thoreau said: "How many a man has dated a new era in his life from the reading of a book."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

WINNING BRIDGE

Many U.S. Experts Now Favor 'Weak Two-Bid' In Some Cases

In a survey recently conducted by The Bridge World an overwhelming majority of American experts favored the "weak two-bid."

This bid, promising a strong six-card suit in a hand not quite worth a normal bid of one, is illustrated today.

BID OPENER

San Antonio expert Robert Wolff opened two spades with the East hand during the Team Selection Tournament in Atlantic City, N.J., a few weeks ago. The bid indicated a favorable opening lead and warned West not to compete vigorously since East could not be counted on for a normal opening bid.

The weak two-bid often straps the opponents. If their only game is in notrump, it may be difficult for either opponent to bid notrump for lack of a sure stopper in the suit of the opening bid.

Against most opponents Wolff would have enjoyed a huge success with this hand. Neither opponent had a spade stopper. How could either bid notrump?

FINDS ANSWER

In this case Wolff ran up against New York expert Edgar Kaplan, publisher of The Bridge World, and Philadelphia stockbroker Norman Kay, who have worked out a solution to this problem. Kay's bid of three spades asked Kaplan to bid notrump if he had a partial stopper in spades to supplement what Kay held.

NOTRUMP BID

Kaplan had what it took, so he gladly bid three notrump.

There was no problem in the play. Kaplan had eight top tricks in the red suits. If the opponents failed to set up a spade, Kaplan could develop his ninth trick in clubs.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:
♠—J 10 2
♥—K Q 7 3
♦—Q
♣—K 10 8 7 3

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid three spades. This is a slight stretch, particularly since you like to have four trumps for a double raise, but it would be criminal to pass.

Honesty Proves Not Best Policy

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—Honesty wasn't the best policy for a man who appeared as a witness in a Superior Court trial. The man arrived in court late and told Judge Howard Peterson he had been drinking in a bar. When asked if he would swear to tell the truth, he replied: "No, I'm a liar and I never tell the truth."

The witness finally agreed to reconsider his decision, but answered the prsecutor's first question with: "I'm drunk all the time. I don't remember a thing." Peterson sentenced the witness to five days in jail for contempt of court.

Sixth Straight Day Market Shows Gains,

NEW YORK (AP) — Gains outnumbered losses by a comfortable margin today as the stock market closed higher for the sixth straight session.

Among other active stocks, Whittaker rose more than 3, Burroughs 2, Rohr Corp., International Minerals and Brunswick around a point or more.

Ahead a point or so were Ford, General Dynamics, IBM, Owens-Illinois and Schering.

Polaroid was a 4-point loser. Control Data lost nearly 3 while Du Pont and Union Carbide fell more than a point each.

Longs Drug Shows Hike In Net Increase

OAKLAND (BW)—Longs Drug Stores, Inc., has announced a 26 per cent increase in earnings and a 21 per cent increase in sales for the third quarter of its fiscal year.

J.M. Long, company president, reported unaudited earnings for the three month period ended Oct. 31 were $821,000, or 65 cents a share, against $651,000, or 52 cents a share, a year earlier.

For nine months, earnings were $2,240,000, or $1.77 a share, up from $1,817,000, or $1.45 a share the year before.

Sales for the three months were $23,426,000, up from $19,349,000 a year before. For the nine months through October sales were $65,852,000, up from $54,926,000 for the like 1966 period.

Longs opened its 38th store in Fresno during November, bringing to four the number which have been opened so far this year, including one in San Rafael.

Pan Am Reports October Earnings

NEW YORK (BW) — Net income for Pan American World Airways in October was $3,432,000, or 10 cents a share, against $4,280,000, or 13 cents a share, in the same month last year.

Net income for the first 10 months was $59,465,000, or $1.82 a share, compared to $67,338,000, or $2.17 a share, for the same period in 1966.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Lopsided Portfolio Needs Straightening

Q. We have a lopsided portfolio and would like advice about changes. We own 600 General Motors; 75 General Telephone; 50 United Lines; 25 Sears, Roebuck; $6,000 E bonds; $35,000 cash savings deposits. We are six years away from retirement and while we don't need capital now, we will need more income when we retire. At one time we had a substantial portfolio, but wrong advice and wrong timing soured us. We still feel we should be in growth situations to build our capital.—A.B.

A. I regret very much that you have had bad advice. I can do little about timing of purchases in a column of this type, but I believe that strong stocks —regardless of interim fluctuations—will work out well for you six years hence. You are, of course, quite top-heavy in General Motors. I believe you should hold only 100 shares of this stock and switch the balance —subject to tax advice—into quality issues with good potential for continued growth. For the investment of about $40,000, I suggest American Hospital Supply; Consolidated Foods; Georgia-Pacific; Holiday Inns; Litton Industries; Norwich Pharmacal; Plough, Inc.; Transamerica. You have too large a savings reserve, but I would retain this for investment at the time of some future market decline.

Q. I understand municipal bonds are good investments for retired people because their income is tax-exempt. Is this correct?—G.R.

A. Municipal bonds are good investments for everyone, but their relative value to you is dependent on your tax bracket. If you are in a low tax bracket on retirement, I would not pay the premium that municipals command. If your bracket is 32 per cent, you can buy AA-rated Oregon Board of Education 3¾s of 1988 on a 4.2 basis, which would give you a taxable equivalent yield to maturity of 6.18 per cent. If your income is relatively low, you would probably do better with high-grade corporates.

Dole Division Names President

Velasco succeeds the late Howard Hubbard, who died earlier this month while traveling in Japan.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Classi Chassi New Novato Shop; Double Space At Hub Antiques

There is a new name and new ownership for the former Stephenson's Apparel Shop at 1423 Grant Avenue, Novato.

The business has been purchased from Mrs. Helen Stephenson by Mrs. Charlotte Mull of Marinwood and Mrs. Trudy Gidley of San Anselmo. New name will be The Classi Chassi. The store is expected to open Saturday with expanded inventories.

There will be no change in ownership at Stephenson's Apparel Shop in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Mull was formerly active in Mull Figurines which closed its retail store about a year ago and is now conducted as a wholesale business and workshop by her husband in Santa Venetia. She has been working at Stephenson's in Novato for the past four months.

TRIFLES 'N TREASURES, antique shop at 709 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, has recently doubled its floor space by overflowing into 711 next door. This is a move that owner Richard De Lew of Corte Madera has considered before but has regarded any "good luck" attached to the number with some skepticism. It seems there have been a number of previous occupants whose tenure was of short duration.

But learning that there were also others more fortunate, and badly needing the extra room, he decided the jinx was not an appurtenance of the store. Now he is able to add to his stocks as well as show off those he already has. And a 30-minute parking limit has been established in front.

GROUND WAS BROKEN this week for a new building to house the St. Vincent De Paul Thrift Shops in San Rafael. The location is on Irwin Street next to Crown Development Co. H. S. Meinberger and Son is doing the construction.

This will consolidate the three shops now operated — two on B Street and one on Woodland Avenue. Completion is scheduled in about six weeks.

LONG DISCUSSED by officers and members of the Teamsters and Warehousemen's Union, Local 624 has been the consolidation of its offices in San Rafael and Petaluma to avoid duplication of work and to save rental expense.

Starting Friday, both offices will be closed and replaced by a new one in the Patio, 864 Grant Avenue, Novato. This is in the former Pacific Gas and Electric Co. building.

Hours will be from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Meetings will be on the third Tuesday of each month at 1 and 8 p.m. Office workers will meet on the fourth Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. And there will be a new telephone number.

CHRISTMAS TREES (some of them live), holiday decorations and small gifts will be on sale again this year at the third annual Marin Festival of Trees. This is put on by a number of Marin merchants, the Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls of Marin, with proceeds going to expand the educational programs of the Louise A. Boyd Marin Museum of Science.

The sale will be held at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael, from 6 to 11 p.m. Friday and from 12:30 to 11 p.m. on Saturday.

THE GIFT HORSE, a new specialty gift shop, opens Friday in the Montecito Plaza off Third Street, San Rafael.

Specializing in unusual decorative accessories, it will carry imports in candles and greeting cards, gourmet food gift packs, stem and stoneware and other gift items, including personal jewelry for both men and women. The shop's interior design features a fine art gallery, with displays of tapestries, statuary, wall decor and framed original oils.

Owners are Arthur Ost of San Rafael, formerly with advertising agencies in New York and San Francisco, and his wife Jean, a specialist in furniture antiquing and mosaic design.

NEW ASSISTANT MANAGER at Bank of America's Sausalito office is Ralph Yoder, replacing Walter DeMartini who recently resigned. A native of Cotati, Yoder joined the bank in 1941 at Vacaville. He has served at Woodland and Napa offices and as assistant cashier in the Timeplan administration department in San Francisco. For the past six months he has been participating in the bank's officer development program.

BUILDING PERMIT VALUES in Marin County for October amounted to $4,436,781. This was 53.9 per cent better than September and 85.4 per cent better than October of last year. But 1967 to date still lags almost one-third behind 1966 totals for the 10 months. Heaviest construction values were in residential permits in Novato, Larkspur and San Rafael.
